

PLAN CAMPAIGN—Stanley Remelmeyer, who is Torrance chairman for the 1959 Red Cross campaign and also heads the residential group, met this week with his division chairmen to complete plans for coordinating the campaign with the one-day blitz planned for the entire Los Angeles chapter. Left to right: Remelmeyer, standing. Seated, Mrs. Conrad Jackson, Mrs. Robert W. Atha II and Mrs. H. L. Allison; Standing: Mrs. Kenneth Uyeda, Mrs. Chesley R. Houske, Mrs. Robert Cramer and Mrs. Frank F. Forve.

THIS CONDITION SHOULD CEASE—That's what student grounds director Scott Hanlon is telling members of the Carr School Student Senate, as he reports on litter on the school campus. Listening to his report are Secretary Judy Waters, President Cary Hubert and other members of the Senate, which is modeled on the U. S. Senate.

CONGRATULATIONS were extended by Torrance corporation executive Glenn Koger, Community Chest Harbor Area chairman, to Mrs. Almeron J. Field, Portuguese Bend resident, for winning Chesty statuette for exceeding 100 percent of quota, as Rolling Hills city chairman. Both are members of Harbor Area Welfare Federation Board. —Photo by Brown Studio

Grand Guardian Visits Torrance Jobie Bethel 50 on District Call

Torrance Bethel 50 of Job's Daughters was host to Mrs. Dorothy Wise, grand guardian of California, recently when she made her official call on district 9, which includes the cities of Torrance, San Pedro, Wilmington and Lomita.

Mrs. Wise, a former queen, has worked with the Job's Daughters for many years. She received gifts of flowers and an honorary membership from each of the Bethels visited.

In attendance to honor Mrs. Wise were over 350 Jobies and guests.

Each Bethel took charge of one quarter of the meeting. Opening with Mary Margaret Blount of Torrance Bethel 50, Guardian Mrs. Leonard Babcock and associate Leonard Babcock.

Honored guests were: Tim Larsen, past supreme guardian; Judy Stole, Jackie Sampson, and Carol Guile, grand guardian council representatives to other states and Rachel Wily and Agnes Costensen, past grand guardians.

Edna Babcock, Catherine Ford, Doris Wheeler, Dorothy Halsted and Ruby Young, grand officers. Clyde Satterfield, Willis Copenhagen, J. Sawyer and T. Tenney, Masonic Masters.

Rose Fulliano Archie, marshal, and Mary Anne Smith, guardians.
