

Torrance Teemen Meet San Diego

Two closely ranked teams will meet at the Mission Valley Country Club Monday afternoon when El Camino College golfers meet the teemen from San Diego Junior College.

Having dropped a close match to a strong Long Beach State College team, the Warriors are out for revenge at the expense of the Border City linksmen. A loss to either team will be expensive in a Conference sparked by high-powered teams.

Pacing the Warriors thus far has been El Weber, a mainstay along with Garth Reynolds and Larry McElroy.

Newcomers expected to see action with the Warriors are Steve Crowell, Joe Carbone, Larry Martez and Jack Payton, none of whom has had an opportunity to participate extensively in conference play to date.

Jones Tries Skill in Sportsman Car Class at Ascot

Parnelli Jones of Torrance, already point-standing leader in three different branches of auto racing, tries a fourth division at Ascot Stadium this Sunday afternoon during the sports car races.

Jones, tops in CRA sprints, URA midgets and NASCAR late model stock cars, pilots a 1957 Ford Thunderbird-powered machine Sunday. Sportsman cars are a sort of cross between sprint cars and hot rods, using late model engines in a sleek chassis atop which perches a coupe driver's compartment.

Most of the drivers hail from San Diego, where sportsman racing has blossomed into the No. 1 attraction in its field. Top threats are Jack McCoy, Corvette; Glen Hoagland, Cadillac; Walt Sherman, Packard; Herb Crawford, Jaguar; Art Snare, '58 Edsel; Don Ray, Corvette; and Jack Krogh, Buick.

Bowling News El Camino Swimmers Face L. B.
Action in Bowl-O-Drome's First Annual Presidents Doubles Sweeper scorching the popular lanes right down to the last squad, ending another Schreiber event with the guaranteed $750 prize pot going away over the top.
Powerful scores were racked up during the closing hours but none of the competing double combinations succeeded in knocking Massey Deprey and P. Moreland from the first place position held with their whopping 1337 dual effort. Kegling champs pocketed the main bank of loot from the two week affair, $316 instead of the $250 guaranteed for first in the doubles.
Sheldon Hippo and George Welch scattered the pins for a rousing 1313 tally, taking second and collecting $231.25. Copping third and $156.15 was Bill Moad and S. Iserl for their combined 1310 three game totals while a couple of Bowl-O-Drome regulars, Gary Shore and George Shi-bao connected for 1307 to share the $120 fourth place money. Fifth and sixth in the doubles column, amounting to $180 shared by H. Carner and John Faggus, B. O'Connor and S. Pallas, each pair coming up with 1302 on the scoreboard as A. Marzich and S. A. Keck tossed out an even 1300 effort for 7th spot and $45.
Jackie Dykes, who sinks the scales to about 105 pounds, had Bowl-O-Drome wood flying all over with her new 16 pound "bomb" when she sizzled to her all time high scratch set of 598, latching onto the top notch in the gals scratch division good for $25, besides winding up with a scorching 712 with handicap to claim first place honors and $160.70 in the optional singles with handicap division.
Von Bergen pocketed $120.80 second place money in the singles for his 710 tally, while D. LaDouceur netted $80.70 and third spot honors with his 707 and the $50 first in the mens
