Mrs. Kenneth Boulter New Junior President

Mrs. Kenneth Boulter was elected president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club at the March 11 business meeting. Serving with her will be Mmes. Clifford Trezise, first vice-president; William Starr, second vice-president; A. R. Felando Jr., third vice-president; John A. Hall, recording secretary; C. L. Briner, corresponding secretary; Baron A. Tatum, treasurer; Douglas Horlander, auditor; and Edward B. Aiken, reporter.

The officers will be installed at a clubhouse banquet April 22.

Mrs. Boulter is the mother of two children, Belinda Sue, age 7, who attends Fern Avenue Elementary School, and Peter, age 4. Her husband is employed at Hughes in Culver City.

A resident of Torrance for the last seven years, Mrs. Boulter is a second generation Californian, reared in Pacific Palisades.

Active in both the Fern Avenue PTA and the Torrance Co-operative Nursery School, she attends the local First Christian Church. Mrs. Boulter is a graduate of Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and also attended UCLA, where she was a member of the Alpha Chi Omega Sorority.

As the president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Boulter is fulfilling a family tradition, her mother, Mrs. Paul Spring, is a past president of the Pacific Palisades Woman's Club.

Following the election, Girl Scout Troop 614, sponsored by the Juniors, presented a program on their scout study of international friendship.

Dieter Sieler and Per Svanevik, exchange students attending school here under the American Field Service program, were introduced by Mrs. Boulter.

Mrs. John Melville of the American Field Service moderated a panel discussion by the foreign students.

Following the discussion period, Mrs. J. G. Louvier presented a check to Mrs. Melville to further the program of American Field Service.

The membership voted to make donations to Meals for Millions and the Torrance Dental Health Association.

Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, Americanism chairman, circulated a petition urging the Safer Driver Licensing program for California. The petition will be sent to Governor Edmund G. Brown.

LOVELY FASHIONS FOR SPRING will be featured today during the noon hour at Caprino's. The collection presented by Moore's Women's Wear, 1274 Sartori Ave., will be modeled by the Torrance Mannequins. Mona Norris previews two of the ensembles here. Left, a navy blue and white pin check suit with navy piping, just right for spring shopping and afternoon get-togethers. A mass of flowers forms the crocheted hat topping the navy blue dress on the right. The smart little number has a three-fold purpose. It may be worn for afternoon, cocktail and dinner affairs.

Scouts Revise Plans
The Girl Scouts of Biggs Neighborhood cancelled their plans for an Ingathering to celebrate the birthday of Girl Scouts. The affair was scheduled for the Civic Auditorium, March 18th at 7:30 p.m. A conflict in reservations for the auditorium caused the girls to revise their plans. The committee is now working on tentative arrangements to hold the affair in October in commemoration of Juliette Low Day.

End of Year Meeting Held by Juniors

The calendar may say it's only March, but for members of clubs in Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership, it's the end of the year.

March 23 at the Manhattan Beach Dolphins clubhouse, 820 Highland Ave., Mrs. Paul Olenik will conduct the final meeting of the district. Mrs. John Meehan of the Dolphins will have complete charge of the dinner which will serve approximately 75 persons.

Mrs. Robert Dreizler announced the meeting will mark the deadline for all reports to be turned in to the district chairmen, to be eligible for judging and awards. Awards to the outstand-

June Wedding Told

An engagement of wide social interest was announced recently by Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Dutton, 23624 Eshelman, when they revealed the June wedding plans of their daughter, Miss Gloria Dutton and Austin L. Cathey, son of Mrs. Elsie Mae Cathey of El Paso, Texas.

Miss Dutton is a graduate of Torrance High School, class of '58. Her fiance graduated from an American High School in Kyoto, Japan, where his father was stationed in the service.

Both are graduates of El Camino College. Cathey is at the present time serving with the U. S. Army as an electronic specialist. Miss Dutton is a professional model.

The wedding date has been set for June 27 at the Wayfarers' Chapel.

The couple will live in Texas until the end of Cathey's army service and then plan on returning to Torrance to make their permanent home.

ing clubs will be presented at the district convention to be held April 17-18 at the Chapman Park Hotel in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Paul R. Smith and Mrs. Edla Tegner Swinney, district coordinators, will accept the reports from club coordinators.

Press books will be given to Mrs. Harrison Burnette, district director of press and publicity. Two awards will be given in this category.

Mrs. Dreizler said the winner of the Americanism Essay contest would be presented, and the $25 government savings bond presented.

According to Mrs. Joe Noble, press chairman for the Dolphins, rehearsals are well under way for a surprise presentation to conclude the final meeting.
