OLIVE RICE

SALLY HAZZARD

First Operetta Group to Present 'Carousel'

A dazzling cast will present one of Broadway's all-time favorites here April 1.

'Carousel,' by Rogers and Hammerstein, will be produced in a gay one-hour performance by the First Operetta Group to members and guests of the Torrance Woman's Club.

Harper MacKay will direct and accompany the star-studded cast, including such notable as Olive Rice, Keith Wyatt and Sally Hazzard.

MacKay has just completed work on the MGM production, 'Porgy and Bess,' and his film credit for work on 'The King and I' and 'Good Morning, Miss Dove.' He toured as musical director for the international singing favorite, Carl Brisson, and recently appeared on the Jack Parr show.

Lovely Olive Rice, soprano, has had leading roles with the Guild Opera Company, Los Angeles Opera Foundation and Europe and Hollywood Opera reading clubs, as well as regular appearances on television for two years.

Noted Tenor

Keith Wyatt, tenor, gained recognition as a winner in three important local voice contests and is now soloist with the Roger Wagner Chorale.

He was soloist on two national tours with the Robert Shaw Chorale. A third tour took him to 21 countries in Europe and the Near East. He is active in radio, television, motion pictures, recordings, opera, light opera and musical comedy. Sally Hazzard is one of the southlands leading dramatic sopranos and is a graduate of the Lotte Lehmann master class. After triumphant success in 'La Cenerentola' and 'The Saint of Bleecker Street' with the Guild Opera Company, she has been invited to recreate her role in the latter in its Broadway presentation.

Completing the group is Philip Harvey, contract player of Universal-International Studios and baritone with the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera Company and Greek Theater. He has starred in many roles with outstanding musical organizations in Southern California.

With such a production and cast awaiting them, members of the club are not 'fooling around.' Reservations for the affair in honor of past presidents are in the mail.

The April 1 date will include a catered luncheon at 12:30 p. m. with a brief business meeting preceding the program. Snatches of 'If I Loved You,' 'June Is Bustin' Out All Over' and 'Carousel' are bound to be in the air for some time to come.

Los Cancioneros Slate Ninth Annual Concert

They are at it again! The singing men and women of Los Cancioneros have joined to bring the South Bay area another of their musical treats.

This year the date for the annual concert has been scheduled for May 22 and 23 at Redondo Beach High School auditorium.

Betty Holloway, concert chairman, is not letting grass grow under the feet of her 'crew,' so that this year's ninth concert may top them all.

Barbara Mabin, director, has been rehearsing the choir since last fall in a repertoire from Brahms to contemporary music.

The choral concert will be followed by a musical drama. Ray Wallace again will be on hand to set the scene for a gay Broadway glimpse of highlights from 'Guys and Dolls,' 'My Fair Lady,' and 'Music Man.' Contributing his talents in singing as well as theatrical production, Bob Holmes joins Wallace as co-producer. Bob was responsible for the organization and production of 'All Gods Chillun Gotta Sing,' a history of Negro music in the U. S., starring Jester Hairston, famed composer-arranger. He has been co-producer of almost every concert since Los Cancioneros began.

New President

Sandy Stonaker heads the Athens of North High School as president. Other officers include: Linda Cruz, vice president; Jean Erpsson, secretary; Bobbie DeNichols, treasurer; Phyllis Wjser, chaplain; and Barbara Hynes, ICC representative.

MRS. RONALD LEE COLVIN

Middleton, Colvin Exchange Nuptial Vows

Clusters of daisies decorated the aisles of the St. Andrews Presbyterian Church in Redondo for the Sunday afternoon wedding of Lorene Helen Middleton and Ronald Lee Colvin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pletz Middleton of 26999 Dapplegray Lane, Rolling Hills. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Colvin, 3208 Occidental St., Bakersfield.

Rev. Paul C. Cox performed the double-ring ceremony with the bride escorted to the altar by her father.

The bride's wedding gown was fashioned along sweeping princess lines with an Empire bodice and a bouffant skirt featuring garlands of hand tucking and a chapel-length train. Her jewelry consisted of a white cultured pearl on a sterling necklace, her wedding gift from the bridegroom, and matching earrings.

The bride veil fell from a double terra crown of pearls and was fashioned in three tiers with a blushing tier of three-quarter length.

Cascade Bouquet A cascade bouquet of dainty stephanotis and lilies of the valley was arranged on a white Bible given her by her grandmother, the late Mrs. M. C. Bosworth.

As maid of honor, Nancy Sloan wore a full-length Dior blue silk organza dress with pink rosebuds on a bouffant skirt. Her large Dior blue hat was decorated with rosebuds also. Her bouquet was composed of pink hyacinths and pink rosebuds.

Bridesmaids Carol Rawlings, Clara Lee Palso, Deanne Boen and Peggy Crane wore identical dresses and small Dior blue veiled hats.

Flower girl Peggy Crane was dressed in a pink silk organza frock, floor-length. She scattered pink rose petals as she followed the bridal couple down the aisle.

Completing the wedding party were Glenn Crane as ring-bearer, Rodrick Stroud as best man and Russell Hoyt, Roy Middleton, Neal Knapper and Terry Gould, ushers.

Organ Music Mrs. Melville Tully played the organ and Meville Tully sang a solo. Wedding music included the Hawaiian Wedding Song, 'As the Night I Love Thee,' and 'The Lord's Prayer.' The bridegroom's mother
