Hospital officials said that plastic surgery was performed on the face of Teri Lynn Waterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Waterman, of 21338 Conradi Ave.

OUTDOORS with MEL

By MEL SALTZMAN Here and There

Lake Arrowhead The trout fishing has been good with many limits taken. The best still fishing bait is bright red eggs and red cheese bait.

Lake Cachuma Shore fishing is producing small bluegill on bait. Bass fishing is still good with black jigs and black pork rind doing the job.

Lake Irvine Crappie and Trout fishing has been good. Bass fishing is slow although some are taken every day between 4 and 8 pounds.

Isabella Lake Bass fishing has been good with some being taken on surface plugs. Crappie fishing good with many taken over 1 pound.

Sherwood Lake The fishing has held up well after the big opening day. Many limits of Bass, Crappie, Bluegill, and Rock Bass brought in daily.

The fishing is irregular. One day the Barracuda are red hot; the next day in the same spot—nothing. The local yellowtail are slow although Catalina continues to produce well on the West end.

Sportsmen Cars Roar at Gardena

Following last week's spectacular opening program of sportsman racing, Gardena Stadium officials anticipate a near-capacity turnout Saturday night at the 139th St. and Western Ave. speed plant.

The sportsman cars, which are best described as a mixture of roadster and sprint car with a coupe driver's compartment, use late-model, souped-up engines. Their speeds were comparable to those of Offy midgets and sprint cars on the three-mile oval, officials pointed out.

Parnelli Jones of Torrance joins the entry list for Saturday night in a T-Bird machine. Rip Erickson goes in Bill Mangold's new Olds Rocket 98 from Compton featuring a "laid-over" engine mounting similar to new Indianapolis autos.
