Letters to The Editor

To the Editor:
Your paper deserves a word of thanks for publishing all sides of the Monterey St. "buffer zone" issue.

All the residents thank you, as I do.—Nadine Moyer, 2655 Monterey St.

To the Editor:
Speaking for the Monterey Residents Committee, I would like to commend our community newspapers for their fair and objective reporting of our attempts to regain the 100-foot buffer zone between our homes and the new industries.

Not only has your coverage been given in the finest tradition of community newspapers, it has served all of Torrance in regaining what we hope will become a green or planted strip in the future.

Thank you once again for this important community service.—Mrs. Shirley Schwarz, secretary, Monterey Residents Committee.

To the Editor:
I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you for such wonderful coverage in your paper on the 100-foot buffer zone south of Monterey Street.

Your interest in our problem, and fair coverage, was appreciated by all and has certainly not gone unnoticed by the other residents of the City of Torrance.

Again, let me say thank you for such terrific cooperation.—Sincerely yours, Doreen Weir, Delighted Resident.
