

Foreign Exchange Student Speaks at PTA Meet

"Take Time for International Understanding" was the theme for the April PTA meeting of the 186th Street School.

Guest speakers were Mrs. J. attending North High School in B. Mosely of International Field Service and Per Svanevik, an Edwin Grogan family. exchange student from Norway Svanevik answered many questions on the activities of the youth of Norway in comparison with the United States. Fashions of present day dress of various countries were made and modeled by Mmes. Joseph Hoss, Mexico; Niels Iversen, Holland; Bill Thrower, United States; Donald Dittman, Japan; William Buckman, China; Blanch Wilson, Hawaii; and Zelma Ferguson, wearing the most comfortable fashion for yard work, blue jeans. The PTA voted to hold a rag and paper drive May 8. Mrs. William Buckman, first grade chairman, and grade mothers served refreshments after the meeting.
