

Action Received on Falling Wall

Los Angeles City officials today took action aimed at the restoration of the 6-foot-high concrete block fence that collapsed last week into the newly-paved alley in the rear of a house at 1510 W. 249th St., Harbor City, owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grooms.

City Council President John S. Gibson Jr. said that City Engineer Lyall A. Pardee has informed the subdivider of the adjacent property to restore the fence to its original condition.

The fence reportedly crashed into the alley when the alley grade was cut down two to three feet below the base of the fence.

TAKES BASIC TRAINING

James S. Shearer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Shearer, of 21906 S. Evelyn Ave., is now stationed at Ft. Ord, undergoing basic training.

SPARKLING INTERIOR—Maryann's Beauty College, recently opened at 24051 Ocean Ave., Waleria, has a lovely interior, as can be seen above. The shop is owned and operated by Mary Vojtecky, who brings to her new shop many years of excellent training and experience, including Cliffy Beauty Salon in Redondo. In addition to the expected beauty services of hair cutting, shampooing, styling, permanent waving and hair rinsing, Miss Vojtecky does manicuring. Another unusual service she offers is eyelash and eyebrow tinting. Since her opening, March 31, she has been giving her customers the luxury of a complimentary facial with Jafra Cosmetics along with their shampoo and set or whatever they are having done. Recent surprise addition to Maryann's Beauty College is a body toner and reducing machine. Customers may have a truly complete beauty treatment when they visit Maryann's. A call to FR 5-2895 will enable you to make your appointment. Maryann's Beauty College is open daily and on Wednesday and Thursday evenings for those who are unable to come in during the day.
