Foreign Students Tell Lions of Impressions of America

The American Field Service got the impression given by magazines, papers, and movies. "We seem to get a picture of the extremes," Seiler said. "I rather thought that everybody here was either a movie star or a hoodlum in a leather jacket."

Lions President Sam Van Wagner presented the check to Dieter Seiler and Per Svanevik, students from Germany and Norway respectively, for continuation of the local foreign exchange student program.

Then, Seiler and Svanevik teamed up with Rozanne Hathway and Pat Achenbach, Torrance students who went to Greece and Sweden last summer to compare impressions of life in Europe and America.

All agreed that America's pace of life is much faster than Europe's, but not as much faster as training teachers, he said.

Svanevik noted that he believed that Americans went out every night dancing or "partying." He was surprised to find that the jitterbug, currently popular in Norway, has largely gone out of style here.

The students agreed that many more Americans have a chance for higher education than in Europe. For instance, in Norway, only about 10 per cent of the students go to high school and only about 10 per cent of these go to college, Svanevik noted. The country has only one university for open's, but not as much faster as training teachers, he said.
