Spring Concert Slated by THS

Torrance High School Music Department will present its fifth annual spring concert in the high school auditorium Friday at 8 p. m.

This concert will feature the five groups, namely, the Girls' Glee Club, the Tartar A Capella Choir, high school dance band, high school orchestra and high school concert band.

The numbers will include selections from the famous Broadway musical productions such as "The Music Man," "Oklahoma," "South Pacific" and "My Fair Lady."

Darel Kelley, student conductor, will lead the orchestra in one number. Gary Tiernan, student conductor, will lead the band in one selection.

The Girls' Glee Club is directed by Vincent DiFiore and the other organizations are directed by James Nichols.

City Rule on Hiring Attacked

City hall hiring procedure came under strong criticism by City Councilmen Tuesday.

A recommendation to throw out the city engineer's eligibility list and calling of a new examination, drew fire from Councilman Victor Benstead.

"I don't believe in hand-picking a man for the job. I don't believe in the canasta club at city hall," he declared.

The council nevertheless agreed to call a new examination. Later in the meeting, Councilman Willys Blount asked for an investigation of why persons hired for temporary work are later given permanent status at the same time by-passing candidates higher on the eligibility list who had refused temporary appointment.

City Manager George Stevens was asked to check into the matter.
