Fleming PTA to Install New Officers

Mrs. Leland Van Euren will be installed as president of Fleming Junior High School PTA May 16 . . . 1:30 p.m.

Others to be installed include Mmes. Dallas Wallick, first vice president; Faith Carter, second vice president; Lewis J. Gandsey, third vice president; Joe Stafford, treasurer; A. A. Venable, secretary; Ted Y. Hachiya, corresponding secretary; A. G. Schilling, auditor; Louis Slang, historian; and Ray Groover, parliamentarian. Parents from the Rolling Hills area will serve as hostesses. Included in the program will be a speaker from the Parks and Recreation Department who will tell of the recreational facilities in this area. Historian and convention reports will also be given.

At a recent meeting of Gateway Council held at Dana Junior High School, Fleming PTA received awards from Los Angeles Tenth District CCPT. A "Service Award" was received for support of the Community Chest; a reward in "Recognition of Achievement in Parent Education"; a "Magazine Award" for sale of the California Parent-Teacher Magazine; and a "Certificate of Award" in recognition of service to children of the community.

At the recent sixth annual Safety Award Program, a "Merit Award" from the National Safety Council was given Fleming PTA for its safety work.

Attending the California Congress of Parents and Teachers Convention held in Los Angeles last week were Mrs. Leland Van Euren, president-elect and Mrs. C. L. Wilson, a 10th District Board member, both representing Fleming PTA.

Future meetings of interest to Fleming PTA mothers include Gateway Council's June 1, luncheon at the Retail Clerks' Union Hall, Harbor City; PTA potluck luncheon honoring the teachers.

Sisterhood to Honor Members at Luncheon

Temple Menorah Sisterhood donors will be honored at a luncheon May 19 at the Thunderbird Hotel.

Mmes. Sydney Greene and Edward Sokolowski are heading the decoration committee for the affair. Assisting them will be Mmes. Sam Katz, Stanley Lieber, George Needleman, Gene Alfred, George Lewison, Phillip Weinstein and Bernard Rivo.

The opening convocation will be given by Rabbi Henri Front and Mrs. Rena Waxman will entertain with a dramatic monologue "My Fair Lady." Mrs. Dan Finklestein announces that any woman who has not yet made her contribution may still do so.

Skating, Dancing Highlight Sports Knight

Outdoor skating and dancing highlighted the recent Lower division Sports Knight held at Stephen M. White Elementary School.

Stanley Miller, Anthony Sokolowski, and Geraldine Yamamoto were faculty representatives present for the evening. Mmes. E. N. Reese, Lloyd Rowe, William Roller, Oscar Smith and Juanita Harvey were the parents present.

Prize winners at the recent cookie drive were Mike Siesal, seventh grade; Beth Leake, eighth grade and Grant Micken, ninth grade. The grand prize, a transistor radio was awarded Beverly Wade.
