Mother Goose Fate Important, States Speaker

Mother Goose is losing out to animated TV commercials. Mrs. Vera Walls deplored the lost heritage of nursery rhymes and poetry when she spoke on "Home Reading for Young People" at the recent Lomita-San Pedro Council of PTA's. Stating that children can't be expected to enjoy books when their parents don't read, Mrs. Walls made a plea for fathers to step in and read to their children. A list of recommended reading material for "story time" was offered by Mrs. Walls. It included "Chanticleer and the Fox," winner of the yearly Caldicot award, "The Bequest of Wings," by Phil Stong, for fifth and sixth graders; "What Do You Say, Dear," covering manners for all occasions; "I Like Caterpillars," and a "pocket book" entitled, "Parents Guide to Children's Reading."

TAKES DRIVER TRAINING Army Pvt. Leo R. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, 22111 S. Harvard St., Torrance, completed the light-vehicle driver course May 8 at Fort Ord. He attended Narbonne High School in Lomita and was employed by Rubber Products, Gardena, before entering the Army. Use Classified—FA 8-2345.
