New Yorker Visits Local Relatives

John Aintablian of Syracuse, N. Y., is enroute to his home state after completing a month's visit with relatives and friends in Southern California. He was hosted alternately by his sons and their families; the Joseph Aintablians of Lomita, and the Edward Aintablians of Hollywood Riviera.

He was also feted by two brothers living in the Los Angeles area; the Joseph Edisons and the Richard Aintablians. Mrs. John Aintablian was unable to health.

The couple has resided in New York for over forty-five years, and will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary on August fifteenth of this year.

Pugget Sound Nuptials Unite Glasson, Blaisdell Relatives

MRS. SELA BLAISDELL

The base chapel of the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard, Bremerton, Washington, was the scene of the April 17 wedding of Annabel Helen Glasson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Glasson, 1544 West 220th St., and Sela Arthur Blaisdell, Lt. j.g. of the U. S. Navy.

The bride was a smoke grey suit with white accessories for the ceremonies uniting her to the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sela Blaisdell of Michigan.

Chaplain L. Anderson recited the vows, with Mrs. Margaret Felt, matron of honor and Lt. J.G. Denny Porter acting a best man.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and attended L. A. Harbor Junior College. Following a honeymoon in Canada and Las Vegas, the newlyweds will make their new home in Port Huene.

KIDS, COSTUMES AND BALLOONS mark the occasion of the coming annual spring festival at Nativity Catholic School. Carol Kristufek hands down Richard Olson a balloon as, from left, Jackie Tornelli and Michael Olson look on. The festival will be held on the school grounds from 12:30 to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Members of Brownie Troop 580 sponsored by the Howard Wood School, held a Mother's Day Breakfast and a Theater Party during the month.

The Mother's Day party was held at the poolside patio of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Morgano. Mothers were presented corsages under the direction of Mmes. Phyllis Morgan, leader; and Bonnie Clark, co-leader, and the girls were given official scout ties by the mothers.

Surprise Stork Shower Given Absentee Style

A surprise stork shower was given recently by Mrs. Jacque L. Johnson and friends at her home, 2621 Martha St., in honor of Mrs. Ronald E. Johnson.

The theme of pink and blue was carried out in decorations and floral arrangements, with party favors consisting of stork decorated napkins.

Grammother Gilbert Owens accepted the gifts in the absence of Mrs. Johnson and Grammother J. R. Johnson rewrapped them for forwarding.

Mrs. Johnson the honoree is living temporarily in New York while her husband is stationed there as an army sound technician.

Games were played with prizes awarded Mmes. Alma Fess, Barbara Marquardt, Melvin Copeland and J. E. Westal.

Rebekah Helper's Club

Rebekah Helper's Club will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Mae Van Nie, 25718 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, at 11 a.m. June 2. A pot luck luncheon will be served.

A festival complete with booths and games will be held by the club June 6 at the home of Mrs. Van Nie.

A business meeting and pot luck was held at the home of Mrs. Edith Trevelyan in Harbor City recently.

Others attending the party were: Mmes. Robert Johnson, Bob Fess, Jack Fess, William Steinkamp, Vivian Nichols, Bob Smith, Dick Owens, Betty Mello, Carol Cusson, Jim McNabb, Vernise Ennis and Mrs. J. E. Westal of Long Beach.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mmes. J. Jack Todd and Pat Neal.
