Gets Ticket, Lauds Officer Who Gave It

It's not too common for a motorist to praise the policeman who issued him a citation, or even to admit that he deserved it.

But Harry M. Brandel Jr., of Palos Verdes Estates, did just that.

He sent a letter to Police Chief Percy Bennett, praising Officer Jerry Snyder, who gave him a ticket.

"The purpose of this note is to comment on the pleasant efficiency and courtesy of Officer Snyder. His manner could not have been more businesslike, however, he was helpful and friendly at the same time," the motorist wrote.

"I cannot admit that the fine I paid was a particularly pleasant experience, but actually it was justified," Brandel said.

Two Torrance Photographers Sweep Additional Top Prizes

Fifteen new honors were added to laurels of El Camino College photographers this week, following competition with other junior college photo students at East Los Angeles Junior College Saturday.

El Camino cameramen, instructed by J. A. Grenier, nabbed one of every three awards made at the annual contest and included two firsts and six seconds among their wins.

Ray Deurloo of Walteria captured a total of six individual prizes, his top effort being a first place award in news photography. The winning photo depicted an automobile crash and was called "Speed Limit."

Deurloo took a third in the same category, a second in the open category and an honorable mention in the commercial division, and third and honorable mention honors in the nature category to complete his series of wins.

Jesse Amado Jr. of Torrance was the second El Camino student to take first place honors winning with his "Cat's Tongue" in the animal division in which his classmates took three of the remaining four awards.

Mrs. Gloria L. Wilson, Inglewood, took a second place with a plaintive photo of a dog, and an honorable mention, while Mrs. Lois Howsley of Walteria also received honorable mention in the animal division.

Amado also took second place in the sports field for his "They're Off," depicting three track men.

Tom Mareschal of Inglewood took second place honors with his unnamed portrait of a small girl enjoying an ice cream cone.
