Royal Neighbors Celebrate Birthday Party

The Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors celebrated its 38th birthday in connection with the district meeting, May 19, in the Woman's Clubhouse on Engracia Ave.

Highlight of the evening was the "Parade of Banners" by the district camp. Each camp made a circuit of the room singing a theme song for the banner campaign.

Following that the camps put on songs and skits with Gardena presenting a "Spring Parade of Hats," moderated by Mrs. Marie Bankston, and Ocean Park a charade.

Torrance camp was represented by Mrs. Belva Brase doing a modern day shopping trip in the new "sack" dress.

Decorations were in the colors of the camp, purple gladiolas and white calla lilies, and the dining room table was centered with a birthday cake. Mrs. Angeleine Disario decorated the cake, also in purple and white.

Ninety members attended the meeting, with Mrs. Mary Chiara the official hostess.
