

Eastern Star Reports June Meeting Here

Torrance Chapter Order of Eastern Star held its regular meeting Thursday at Masonic Temple.

During the evening a recess was called for De Molay Chapter of Torrance to exemplify the "Mother's Degree." Jim Myers spoke and the officers performed.

A Memorial Day service was held with Conductress and Associate Conductress reading the Altar, and Worthy Matron Betina Miller speaking a verse and as she placed a white rose in memory of Alice Mort and Lucie Lund.

Escort was given to the following Past Matrons and Past Patrons: Jean and Ernest Mosher, David and Mae Jones, Frederick and Vivian Cook, Edward and Marguerite Morgan, Joyce and Lawrence Miller, Jeannette Clark, Jack Miller, Garnet Satterfield and Grace Herd.

IN GARDENING EVENT

The gardening class of Stephen M. White Junior High School has entered the Los Angeles Beautification contest in two categories. The first is the garden itself at Stephen M. White which includes the plots of flowers and vegetables which have been developed plus a sunken garden. In this area the garden of Stephen M. White Junior High School was placed in the finals of the judging by the Los Angeles City Beautiful Contest Committee.

Clubs Last Meeting of Season Held

Juniors Hear Talk by Dr. Wendell L. Miller

Husbands were given a treat by the members of the Junior Woman's Club Wednesday evening.

Dr. Wendell L. Miller, well known lecturer, spoke on his experiences in Russia and showed colored films of his travels there and in the satellite countries.

A recognized platform personality, Dr. Miller is a member of the International Platform Association, West Coast public relations lecturer for the American Express Company and is listed in "Who's Who in America."

He recently came out of retirement to serve as minister for the Manhattan Beach Community Church.

A pot luck dinner was served the members and their husbands attending the meeting, the last get-together of the club until September.

Prespective members were invited to the affair along with YMCA directors, Joe Wilcox and Doug Cannon and their wives and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sherwin, teen canteen counselors.

Thelma Davis received a gift during the evening in recognition for her award in the Marina District Vogue sewing contest.

Awards were given to members who had earned the most points during the club year.

The ten top point awards were as follows: Mmes. Joseph Boylan, Clifford Trezise, C. L. Briner, James Van Dyck, John Stokley, A. R. Felando Jr., Elgin E. Logsdon, Eugene Lenk, Douglas Horder, and Allen Hofferber.

Decorations carrying out the international aspect of the meeting were arranged by Mmes. Clayton Lilley, W. E. Starr, A. F. R. Felando Jr., Richard Oliver, John Stokley, and Don Carlson.

Dolls of nine countries, with representative period sailing vessels and ships served as table centerpieces. With colors of aqua and pink carried out in the stereo-foam backing and tapered candles.

The program was presented by the members of the board. A vote followed for the major philanthropy and ways and means project for the next year.

CLEVER DECORATIONS carrying out the international aspect of the Juniors' Husbands' potluck meeting Wednesday evening are admired by Mmes. Clayton Lilley, decorations chairman, and committee members A. R. Felando Jr., third vice-president, and William E. Starr, secretary. The decorations were loaned by Miss Annette Felando of the Eastern Star. Dr. Wendell L. Miller, D. D., guest speaker, lectured on Russia and showed slides taken on his last trip.

Local Altrusa Club Awards Scholarship

The first Annual Award for outstanding qualities of leadership, scholarship, and citizenship, was presented Monday evening by the Altrusa Club to Ned Emerson, a student at Redondo Union High School. Emerson accepted the check for $100 at the monthly dinner meeting of the Club held at the home of Mrs. Walter Kregg.

His outstanding record at Redondo Union High School includes President of the Freshman and Sophomore Class, Student Body President, Commissioner of Elections for two semesters, varsity football, junior varsity basketball, and selection by American Field Service Organization as the representative to Europe this summer.

Irene R. Davidson, president of the Club spoke on the future plans of Altrusa in the South Bay Area. The Club plans include the establishment of a Mental Health Clinic, work with American Field Service exchange program, and providing playground or other equipment for recreation departments in the Area.

The meaning of Altrusa, the oldest woman's service organization in the United States, was discussed with the new members, each selected from executive positions in chosen fields.

The next monthly meeting will be a Fourth of July party at the home of Mrs. Osna Greene, Hollywood Riviera. The affair will be complete with a barbecue and fireworks.

MISS INGRID STENGER

Stenger, Miller Engagement Is Revealed

Luau Honors Guests Visiting Here from Liverpool, England

An authentic Hawaiian luau honoring relatives from England was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton H. Finn, 21321 Grant Ave., recently.

The colorful dinner party celebrated the arrival of Mrs. Annie Cohan and Mrs. Gertie Davis and daughter, Lorraine, Finn's aunts and cousins.

Their first trip to the States, the guests from Liverpool are visiting their sister, Mrs. Minnie Williams of Moor Par.

The rumpus room of the Finn home furnished in rattan and resplendent with tropical plants, provided the background for the affair.

Leis were furnished and the guests were dressed in Hawaiian costume.

The luau feast highlighted the evening. The party menu was served in true island style with the guests seated on the floor and the table a scant foot off the ground.

Party games and dancing followed the dinner, with an added surprise, a birthday cake honoring Mmes. Lois Burns and Kay Marisa, concluding the evening.

Attending the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Burns, Paul Marisa, Louis Williams, David Finn, Phillip Panepinto, Warren Finn, Miss Joan Darnel and fiance, Howard Finn.

Host Stanton Finn is an insurance agent for the Constitution Life Insurance Co.

Breyer, Stoltz Names Linked in Marriage

An heirloom wedding band slipped onto the finger of Cheryl Breyer united her in marriage to Darryl Stoltz at wedding ceremonies last Thursday evening June 4 at 9 p.m.

Doctor Ted Romera of the Church of Religious Science, Hermosa Beach, read the service as the couple exchanged vows in the flower banked living room of the bridegroom's home.

The bride, the daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Breyer of Lomita, inherited her wide 100 year old golden band from her great grandmother.

The bridegroom, the son of Mrs. Herbert Wallace of 20828 South Denker St., was served by his stepfather as best man.

A reception for the families of the newlyweds followed the wedding ceremonies.

The new Mrs. Stoltz is a graduate of Redondo Union High School. Her husband graduated from a Los Angeles High School and following his service with the U. S. Air Force has been employed by the Civic Center Service Station.
