Concert Pianist to Be Guest of Art Group

Colette Nance, concert pianist of Hollywood Riviera, will be the guest of the Torrance Art Group at its pot-luck dinner Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seidler, 3602 - 227th St.

Miss Nance has just returned from a concert tour of Spain where she was acclaimed for her performance of the Liszt E Flat Concerto with the Barcelona Symphony Orchestra, Dr. Eakhtay Ahn, conductor.

She also gave recitals in Valledemosa, where Chopin composed many of his later works, in Palma, Malorca, Cordova and Madrid.

Her tour took her to the French and Italian Riviera and then on to the home of her uncle and aunt, Sir Harold and Lady Kenyon of London.

Jean Townsend will be hospitality chairman of the affair, the groups final meeting of the season.

New officers will be introduced preceding the outdoor buffet dinner. They are as follows: Joyce Fairchild, president; Pat Spingeld, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Neathery, assistant secretary; Mrs. Mark White, treasurer; Ralph Rollins, historian; Bette Seidler, newsletter; Jean Townsend and Jean Schotanus, hospitality; Kinne Downs, program; Lee and Marian Cummings, librarians and Lillian Baker, publicity.

District Junior Executive Meeting Held

A confident rap of the gavel opened the first Marina District Junior executive board meeting for Mrs. Robert Dreizler, president.

The order of business included ratifying chairmen and the scheduling of district conferences and roundtables for the coming year.

Announcement was made of state awards conferred upon Marina District at the recent convention. The Millie Crom award for largest per cent gain in membership. The addition of the Holy Park Juniors and Westchester Juniors into Marina District makes a total of twelve clubs.

The Josephine Seaman award for outstanding coordinator was presented to Marina District Coordinator, Mrs. Paul R. Smith. To Judy Johns, Teen Age Miss, entered by Marina District and sponsored by Playa Del Rey in the state competition, went the State Teen Age Miss award.

The meeting held at the home of first vice-president Mrs. Edward Collins was attended by coordinator, Mrs. Austin McNeil, Redondo Beach, and Mmes. John Schwartz, Torrance, recording-corresponding secretary; Robert Baida, Pacific Palisades, Dean of chairmen; J. C. Supple, Dianus, Press, Hugh Walker, Lawndale Monday Eves., Federation Extension Secretary; Don Moore, Torrance, Treasurer; Wallace Trout, Hawthorne, Auditor; and James Lees, Torrance, Parliamentarian. Marina District theme for the year '59-'60 is "Dream a Dream and See a Garden."
