

Youth Worker Announced by Baptist Church

Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., announces a Youth Worker for the summer months. Jerry Wallace will begin his duties on Sunday June 21st when he will be on the platform with the pastor, Rev. H. Earl Kuester at the duplicate worship services, 8:30 and 11 a.m.

Kuester will bring the message at both services on: "Christianity Without Apology." At the 7:30 evening service the pastor will speak on: "A Costly Haircut."

Wallace is a graduate of the college at California Baptist Theological Seminary in Covina and will begin his theological training there this fall. He has served as a Youth Worker at the Florence Baptist Church and at Paramount Baptist Church.

Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace will be presented to the Youth Workers and the members of the Board of Christian Education with their wives and husbands, at the home of Juanita Anderson, director of Christian Education.

Saturday, June 20th, all Youth of the church and their friends will attend a swim party at Leuzinger High from 2 to 5 p.m.

Senior Highs, are invited to a barbecue supper at the home of the Senior High Counselors, Mr. and Mrs. John Oien, 16945 Brighton Ave., after the swim.

Calvary Baptist Church will again cooperate in the Junior Citizen Camp of the Southern California Baptist Convention by sponsoring three boys from the community and furnishing a worker for the Camp at 1000 Pines. Howard Franklin will be Counselor at the camp set up as a ministry to unchurched children.

Loyalty Dinner Staged by Lutheran Church

Members of First Lutheran Church, Carson and Flower, gathered Saturday for a huge Loyalty Dinner at the Torrance Civic Auditorium. The dinner, inaugurated last year, will launch a campaign to raise the yearly current and benevolent income of the church to the $55,000 mark.

Directed by fund-raising advisor Rev. Robert B. Gronlund and Rev. William J. Roleder, pastor of the church, the canvass has been in preparation for several weeks. Serving as canvass chairman is William Crooker and John Schwartz is division leader. The captains of the three canvassing groups are Stan LeBon, John Ewald and Andrew Acampora. Master of ceremonies will be John Ewald.

A special feature of the dinner was the appearance of a six-page canvass brochure presenting the history of the church as well as the high points of the coming canvass, and featuring photographs of the church buildings and canvass leaders.

Free child care, including dinner and entertainment, was provided at the educational unit of the church.

Serving as hostess chairman is Luther Springer, Evangelism director of the church, assisted by Evangelism zone leaders. Arrangements committee chairman for the children's dinner and the canvass luncheon is Mrs. Stuart Phillips.

The canvass organization will be commissioned at the 10:45 service Sunday morning by Pastor Roleder. They will meet afterwards for a luncheon and special training before beginning the canvass.

Last year the canvass was directed to the entire membership. Since this is an on-going program, only those people who became new members since last year's canvass and those who were not able to participate last year will be visited by the canvassers.

Classmates Fete Eighth Grade at Carr School

Evelyn Carr School was the scene of gala festivities June 11 as the graduating eighth grade class was feted by their seventh grade classmates. More than 280 students and guests attended the tea given in the gaily decorated breezeway under the chairmanship of Mrs. Carl Young.

The graduation dance, at which seven former Evelyn Carr students transferred to Yukon School were guests, got under way at 7 p.m.

The Evelyn Carr PTA furnished corsages for the young ladies and refreshments were furnished by the eighth grade mothers.

Mothers helping with party arrangements were Mmes. John Meyn, Phillip Brooks, Glenn Blake, John Regan and Stanley Vocum.

ASSISTS HOSTESS

Mrs. Hiram O. Callison of Torrance assisted hostess Mrs. Helen Smith at the annual play day of the Susan B. Anthony Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held recently in Long Beach.

Do-it-Yourself Groundbreaking Ceremonies Held

The First Christian Church of Torrance, 2930 Eldorado St., held an unusual groundbreaking ceremony recently for the construction of a Youth Center and Fellowship Hall.

Instead of symbolically turning the first shovel of earth people participating in the service were asked to do some actual construction work. Everyone attended in work clothes and brought hammers or shovels.

Rev. H. Milton Sippel was taking part were: Mayor Albert Bent; Howard Foster, chairman of the Building Committee; Roy Bayer, architect; Jack Perry, chairman of Elders, Robert Vroman, chairman of Deacons, Mrs. James Rea, chairman of Deaconesses, Don Morgan, chairman of Trustees, Mrs. Howard Foster, director of Church School and Rev. Odell Myers, minister of Youth. Rev. J. J. Walker, former minister of the church was the main speaker.

As soon as ceremonies were concluded, Louis Culler, superintendent of construction, will assigned each person to a task. Dinner was served at noon with Mrs. Tom Saine, president of the Christian Women's Fellowship and Mrs. Burke Mosely, chairman of the Service Committee in charge.

The new building which will be built by the congregation is 70'x 111' and will have a gymnasium and classrooms for the young people's department.

Barbecue Held by Local Brownies

Brownie Troop 2391, sponsored by Harbor City PTA, held a barbecue recently at the home of Mrs. William Soady.

The following Brownies attended: Gwen Albert, Karen Alexander, Christy Finnoff, Brenda Griffith, Wendy Hattenbuhler, Lu Ann McMinn, Joanne Montez, Linda Moneyham, Linda Osti, Cathy Soady, Faye Thomas, Karen Griffin, Sharon Matura and Patty Miller.

Mrs. Victor Osti, co-leader, and Mrs. Ernest Thomas helped with the arrangements.

Care packages for foreign countries were a recent project of the troop.

A classroom equipment kit was sent to Mexico, six food packages to Hong Kong and five to Egypt.

Funds for the project were raised through a bake sale. Brownie world pins were awarded the girls for the work.

Park Picnic Planned

Plans for the annual picnic at Torrance Park, June 28, will be made at the next meeting of the Val-De-Nez music and record club, June 20 at the American Legion Hall, 24701, Narbonne Ave., Lomita, 7:30 p.m.

A number of radio and TV stars are expected to attend as and out of town song writer members and musicians of the club, announces Henry Weaver Sr., publicity chairman.

The club is a non-profit organization with headquarters in Lomita.

FLY-UPS—Ceremonies for Brownies from several local troops were held recently at Flavian Elementary School cafeteria. The girls, wearing their Girl Scout uniforms, are now part of new Troop 2005. Among those taking part in the ceremonies were (from left) Grace Carroll, Mrs. Fred Carroll, leader, Patricia Lee, Linda and Deborah Ferris, Christy Anderson and Mrs. Charles R. Peterson, retiring leader of Brownie Troop 2127.
