Russ Ballerinas Dig Them Crazy Hubcaps

The much denounced American hot-rodgers may be heroes to Moscow motorists. At least that's what the purchases of members of the touring Bolshoi Ballet indicate. John H. Zeigler, vice-president of Columbia Van Lines, 2805 Columbia St., said his firm packed and dispatched 200 foot lockers and crates to Russia. The packing boxes contained articles purchased here by the Soviet entertainers. The Russians purchased a number of fancy hubcaps, auto mufflers, toilet seats, dishes and electrical appliances, as well as clothing while they were in Los Angeles. "I bet they saw American kids wheeling around with those fancy hubcaps and decided to take them home to become the toast of Moscow," Zeigler concluded.
