Special Leave

There is something special about Private Jerome Gregory Doyle's leave. Private Doyle, stationed at Fort Drum, New York, arrived here Tuesday evening to marry Miss Jean McNeil at ceremonies this weekend. The newlyweds will return to New York Monday. Doyle, the son of Gregory Doyle of 24303 Narbonne Blvd., Lomita, entered the Army November 24, and completed his basic training at Fort Dix, New Jersey.

Two Top Officers for New Bank of America Announced

Promotions for two bay area men to the officer staff at Bank of America's beautiful new Sepulveda-Hawthorne branch, opening last month, were announced by Verne L. Hughes, recently appointed manager of the branch. The $450,000 branch structure is located at 3804 Sepulveda Blvd. in the western section of Torrance. Robert A. Wicks of Lomita becomes assistant cashier and second in charge of the branch, while Richard N. Mariucci of Torrance takes the post of assistant cashier in charge of personnel and interior operations. Wicks comes to his new assignment from the Tenth and Pacific branch in San Pedro where he has been a Timeplan officer for the past four years. In San Pedro, he is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Elks Lodge. Born in Los Angeles, he received his education at San Pedro High School, Compton Junior College, and the Harbor District chapter of the American Institute of Banking. Although his banking career dates back to 1937 when he started as a bookkeeper in Compton, it has been twice interrupted for service in the Navy. During World War II, Wicks took part in the Normandy invasion and in 1952 he was called for an additional two years as a lieutenant at a base in Norfolk, Virginia. He and his wife, Ruth, have two children: Diane, 8, and Steven, 2. Mariucci, the other new officer at Sepulveda-Hawthorne, comes here from the edondo Beach branch, where he has worked since 1951, after joining the bank as a teller in Los Angeles in 1949. Born in Torrance, he graduated from Redondo Beach Union High School and El Camino Junior College. He also attended the American Institute of Banking. Mariucci is a member of the Redondo Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife, Maria, are parents of three children: Barbara, 4, Stephen, 8, and Richard, 1. ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL Michael Palacios, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Santiago Palacios of 903 E. 220th St., has been admitted as a patient at Los Angeles Orthopaedic Hospital.

New President Kristy Woodman, eighth grader, was chosen student body president of Casimir Elementary School, 174th and Casimir, recently in school-wide elections. Also elected were Connie Valentine, vice president; Connie Pater, secretary; Bill Purak, service director; Mike Fitzgerald, boys' athletic director; Vicki Richter, girls' athletic director; and Susan Korn, news editor.
