

Fireworks Booth Co-Sponsored by Juniors

Torrance Junior Woman's Club will co-sponsor a fireworks booth with the Torrance Scout Center again this year.

This will be the fourth consecutive year that the Juniors have taken part in the project to raise funds for the new Scout Center.

Foundations for the new Scout Center, located near the YWCA and County Health building facing Del Amo Blvd., will be poured this week.

This year the booth will be staffed almost completely by Juniors and their husbands, thus continuing their support of a project which for two years has been the major philanthropy of the club. Chairmen in charge of the participating Juniors is Mrs. Barton Tatum.

STARTING OFF WITH A BANG—Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club took over the fireworks booth at 234th St. and Western Ave. yesterday. As co-sponsors of the booth, Juniors will raise funds for the new Torrance Scout Center by selling fireworks. From left: the fireworks booth at 234th St. and Western Ave. yesterday. Women of Moose Seat New Officers Here

Mrs. Elsie Smith was installed as the Senior Regent of the Torrance Women of the Moose at ceremonies at the Moose Hall Saturday.

Installing Chaplain Vickey Stiles and Installing Chairman, Gladys Groop were in charge of the opening.

Others taking office were: Virginia Jenkins, senior graduate regent; Lillian Dixon, junior regent; Lulu Sallamon, chaplain; Virginia Olson, guide; Ruby Marley, assistant guide; Joyce Clay, recorder; Ruth Wright, treasurer; Aelna Chaney, Argus; Letha Coffee, sentinel; and Lucile Myers, pianist.

The new officers wore coral formals and gardenia corsages as they were given their obligation for the coming year.

Joyce Clay, installing regent and Peggy Peacock, installing guide wore college of Regents caps and gowns.

Men of Lodge 785 served as receiving officers. Each new officer was escorted to the altar by the installing guide, Peggy Peacock, and were told their duties for the coming year by Joyce Clay, installing regent.

They were then escorted to their new office by the escort team. As the Chaplain approached her station, the escort team stood with folded arms, while Carl Fisher sang the Lord's Prayer.

Each of the stations was decorated with an arch of ivy and flowers with the emblem in the middle of each arch. The escort

Saturday Nuptials Link DeWalsche and Boyd

Linda De Walsche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth De Walsche of 24805 Woodward, Lomita, became the bride of Thomas Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd, 1934 West 262 St., Lomita, at ceremonies at St. Marks Presbyterian church of Lomita, Saturday at 8 p.m.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. Her wedding gown was fashioned with a lace bodice and finger tip sleeves. The full net skirt was styled with lace insets and her veil was of fingertip length.

She carried a bouquet composed of intermingled stephanotis and feathered carnations centered with two removable white orchids.

Baskets of pink stocks and white gladiolas decorated the church as Rev. Eldon Durham read the vows for the candlelit nuptial service.

Matron of honor Mrs. Emily Boyd wore a gown of ballerina length pink silk and carried a bouquet of feather white carnations surrounded by a cascade of pink tulle centered with a removable corsage.

Wearing identical gowns Jeanie Carter and Elizabeth Dyer, a cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaids.

Little Beverly De Walsche, the bride's sister, acted as flower girl. Completing the wedding party were John Boyd as best man and Bill De Walsche, brother of the bride and Mark Kjelland the bridegroom's cousin, as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with matching accessories for the occasion and the mother of the bridegroom, a bonnet colored sheath. Both wore orchid corsages.

Mrs. Marjorie Willacy organist accompanied Amber Inman, vocalist, who sang "God Made Thee Mine" and "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunley.

Following the ceremonies the newlyweds were honored with a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and a former member of Job's Daughters. The bridegroom attended Narbonne High School and Harbor Junior College and is presently employed by the Harbor City Post Office.

The couple will make their new home in Lomita on return from their week's honeymoon at Idylwild.

Open House Honors Max Bentons
