Concert and Picnic Date Set By Juniors

Continuing their activities for the summer, members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club plan an evening of fun while attending the Gershwin concert at the Hollywood Bowl, July 18. Juniors, husbands, provisionals and guests will charter a bus and leave Torrance in time to have a picnic dinner together before the concert. The program will include Gershwin's "Cuban Overture," "Porgy and Bess," "Rhapsody in Blue," and "An American in Paris." Conductor for the evening will be Andre Kostelanetz with Ella Lee, Andre Previn, McHenry Boatwright and the Bowick Singers as guest artists. Members and husbands planning to attend are Messrs. and Mrs. Robert L. Kerber, Wade White, Don Carlson, C. L. Briner, Charles Turner, Lee Clotworthy, Kenneth Boulter, John A. Hall, Dale E. Cote, Clifford Trezise, and Edward D. Aiken. Provisionals with their husbands will be Messrs. and Mrs. Darrel Zander, James A. Perry, James E. Waters, John Prescott and R. K. Petrat. Guests attending will be Messrs. and Mrs. Jaues Shellabarger, Eugene Snyder, Stanley B. Jackson and Anton Vanadewouw.

Eastern Star Junior Past Night Held Here

"Rainbow of Memories" was the theme Thursday evening when Torrance Chapter Eastern Star honored its 1958 officers. As each guest arrived they were presented with a pin-on by Junior Past Matron, Marguerite Morgan. Chapter was called to order by Lawrence Miller, junior past patron, serving as worthy patron. The following officers were invited to serve for the evening: Marguerite Morgan, worthy matron carrying a rainbow with white orchids on it; Alethea Smith, associate matron; Edward Morgan, associate patron; Joyce Miller, secretary; Mavis Cook, treasurer; Bernice Ruppel, conductress; Francis Reiser, associate conductress; Frances Peverley, chaplain; Margaret Raymond, marshal; Garnett Satterfield, organist; Ruth Hardin, Adah; Adah Myers, Esther; Barbara Cartwright, Martha; Marion Womble, Electa; Carol Hedrick, Estell Clere, sentinel; Frederick Cook, prompter; Clyde Satterfield, flag bearer. Special Escort was given the Worthy Matron, Bettina Miller and Worthy Patron John ennington. Under regular escort the following were presented. The Deputy Grand Matron of 1959, Florence Viellenave; Deputy Grand Matron of 1957, Alice Deathreage and Violet and Carol Ballard, worthy matron and worthy patron, of Playa Linda Chapter. Past Matrons and Past Patrons representing Torrance Chapter were Jean and Ernest Mosher, Jeannette Clark, Jack Miller, Vivian and Frederick Cook, Edna Babcock, Alethea Smith, Joyce Miller, Garnett Satterfield, Earl Wells and Edward Morgan. The 1958 Worthy Matrons were Ethel Dowling of Lomita, Marguerite McDonald of Redondo; Evelyn Jacobelly, Wilmington; and Marjie Babiste of Hermosa. Good of the Order was conducted by Lawrence Miller, junior past patron with the following speakers: Marguerite Morgan, Florence Viellenave, Bettina Miller, Alice Deathreage and John Pennington. The 1958 Matrons made a clever presentation to Marguerite of Angels on candles. The Associate Matron and Conductress presented Marguerite with a beautiful rainbow and monetary gift and Lawrence Miller a money tree from the Torrance Officers. At the close of the session the officers formed a star around the altar while Florence Viellenave and Vivian Cook gave the candle-light ceremony in unison. Chairman of the evening, Vivian Cook was presented and the line of march given. The banquet room was decorated with tulle rainbows, pots of gold, and ivy. Individual places were marked with small tulle rainbows. The refreshment committee was: Ethyl, Frances and Phyllis Peverley, Lea Wells, Ruth Hardin, Carol Hedrick, Helen Carpenter, Eunice Crabtree, Fern Mead, Elizabeth Allen, Earl Wells, Frederick Cook, Edward Morgan and chairman Vivian Cook.

Miss Von Schmitton Recent Bride Here

Gloria Gail Von Schmitton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Von Schmitton, 24109 Stanbuist Ave. exchanged vows with Lincoln F. Medlock, 2152 West 236th St., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lacie Medlock of Caraway, Ark., June 27, at 4:30 p.m. at the Church of Christ. Flower arrangements of mums, stock and gladiolas and candleabra decorated the church for the services read by Rev. Loren Biggs. The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father, dressed in a bridal gown of eggshell Allicon lace and satin. The lace bodice of the gown was fashioned with a V neckline and the floor length skirt fell in knife pleats. The bride's fingertip veil was attached to a demi-hat of chantilly lace outlined with pearls and encrusted with sequins and rhinestones. Her bouquet was composed of white carnations carried on a white satin bible. Miss Beverly Clark, wearing a green embroidered organdy, ballerina length gown with a fitted bodice and full skirt, acted as maid of honor. Bridesmaids Misses N a n Adams and Charleen Mante and candelighters, Miss Charlene Medlock and Judy Lynn Von Schmitton wore identical gowns of pink organdy and carried pink carnations with green halos of daisies. Little Cindy Couchman, dressed in a floor length yellow embroidered organdy frock served as flower girl. Completing the wedding party were Eulas Medlock as best man and Steven Von Schmitton, Weldon Smith, Don Boyce and Gary Bell as ushers. Pat Fenton acted as ring bearer. Following the ceremony a reception for the newlyweds was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High. The bridegroom graduated from Manila High School in Arkansas. Following their honeymoon the young couple will be at home at 2152 West 236th St. Use Torrance Press Classified.
