Branch Bank to Feature Open House Opening

Tonight from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Bank of America holds an open house party to launch its new Sepulveda-Hawthorne branch in West Torrance. Manager Verne L. Hughes and his staff will host a large turnout of harbor area residents at the celebration, which features displays, music, refreshments, souvenirs, a treasure chest contest, prizes, and complete tours of the branch. It will give visitors a chance to see just how a large bank operates, before the branch opens for business tomorrow morning at 10 a.m.

A delegation of beach and harbor area civic officials including Bety Baker, "Miss Torrance of 1959," will meet with Manager Hughes and a contingent of senior officers from the bank's Los Angeles Headquarters for the opening ceremonies.

One of the displays will be the valuable coin collection "300 Years of American Coinage,"

Victim Becomes Suspect Instead

The self-proclaimed victim of a robbery and assault became a suspect instead after questioning by police Tuesday morning.

Officers said there was no basis to a story told by Clarence Jay Little, 31, that he had been beaten up by three men who took his car and $60 in Hollywood Riviera.

But a record check did reveal that Los Angeles police are holding three traffic warrants for Little's arrest.

owned by Cyrus Phillips, nationally known collector and lecturer. Some of the money dates back three centuries to the earliest American colonies. Mr. Phillips will be present to answer questions about the currency.

Another exhibit is a photograph and translation of the ancient will of Wah, an Egyptian will drawn up over 3700 years ago and written down on papyrus.

Still another display is a series of historic pictures from the files of Title Insurance and Trust Company. These depict the early days of the beach and harbor area.
