Clinic Set to Banish "Wash Day Blues"

Monday's wash day "blues" didn't disappear with the invention of the automatic washing machine. Modern wash day, as far removed from the kettle and the backyard fire as the automobile from the buggy, still has lots of knotty problems.

Tackling the plastic and drip dry frustrations of today's homemaker, the Torrance Junior Woman's Club has arranged to attend a wash day clinic.

According to Mrs. Richard Day of Westchester, district home chairman, the clinic will be held Monday at the Southern California Edison Co., 125 South Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, with coffee at 10 a.m. and demonstrations beginning at 10:30 a.m.

With home laundering an accepted part of American housekeeping, how to fold a contour sheet, dye a plastic or handle a new fabric is of interest to almost every woman.

At the clinic there will be demonstrations in machine washing and drying of all fabrics presented by Miss Sonia Buber and Mrs. Barbara Duffy, home economists of the Edison Company.

Those attending will also be given tips on removal of stains from printed material and told of the use of the latest soaps, detergents and fabric conditioners.

states Mrs. Elgin Logsdon, American home chairman for the local group.

Torrance Juniors and their friends will attend the laundry clinic through a rrrangement made by Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, president and Mrs. Logsdon. Other local clubs are also expected to take part.

'East Lynne' to End Saturday

"East Lynne" the 100-year-old melodrama by Mrs. Henry Wood, closes its four-weeks run at the Hermosa Beach Pier Playhouse this Saturday.

Filled throughout with a pleasant recipe of laughter and tears, "East Lynne," as directed by Charles Gray, has just enough of the hiss-the villain and cheer-the-hero mixed with the sadness and tragedy of the situation to provide a delightful evening of theater.

Audience favoritism for various members of the excellent cast has been varied the first three weeks—many are partial to the tragic heroine played by petite Jackie Moore, while character rendition by Cal Sever of Lord Mount Severn has also drawn applause.

August Wedding Set, for Twiss and Howard

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Angelo Twiss of 25230 Weston Road, announce the engagement and October 3 wedding date of their daughter, Joan Patricia Twiss and Marven Eugene Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Robert Howard of Pasadena.

Following graduation from Torrance High School she was employed by the medical department of the Occidental Life Insurance Company, where she spent her last two years as office manager.

Her fiancé went through school in Pasadena where he attended the City College. He received his degree from UCLA following a two year tour with the U. S. Navy. At UCLA he was affiliated with the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.
