'Gospel for Today' to Be Title of Sunday's Sermon

"The Gospel for Today" will be the title of the sermon to be preached by the Rev. Earl W. Isbell during the 9 and 10:30 a.m. worship services Sunday at Alondra Park Methodist Church, 3153 West Compton Blvd., Gardena.

The sermon will be the climax of a five-week series on the gospel.

New members will be received into the church during both services Sunday. Persons of Christian faith who wish to become members of the congregation are invited to see the pastor at the church office Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Persons may unite by certificate of transfer from another congregation or by declaration of faith in Christ and assumption of vows of loyalty to the church.

Housewife Asks Thief to Return Stolen Papers

A housewife today made an appeal to a burglar to return identifications and other personal papers stolen in the breakin of her home Friday.

"He can keep the money, over a period of time we can replace that, but I do want those papers back," said Mrs. Frank W. Herbert, of 2034 W. 177th St.

She said the thief, if he reads this, can drop the papers in the mail box.

"I'll even pay the postage," she said.

Besides the documents, the burglar obtained approximately $350 in cash, she said.
