3 Torrance Privates in New Posts

Three Torrance area men serving in the United States Army took part in special military activities last week.

PFC Richard H. Rosser, son of Harry O. Rosser, 1053 W. 225th St., participated with the 328th O. Battalion in "operation baroell," a field maneuver with Italian army troops in Italy.

Rosser, an ammunition storage specialist in the Battalion's Vicenza company, arrived in Europe in December, 1958.

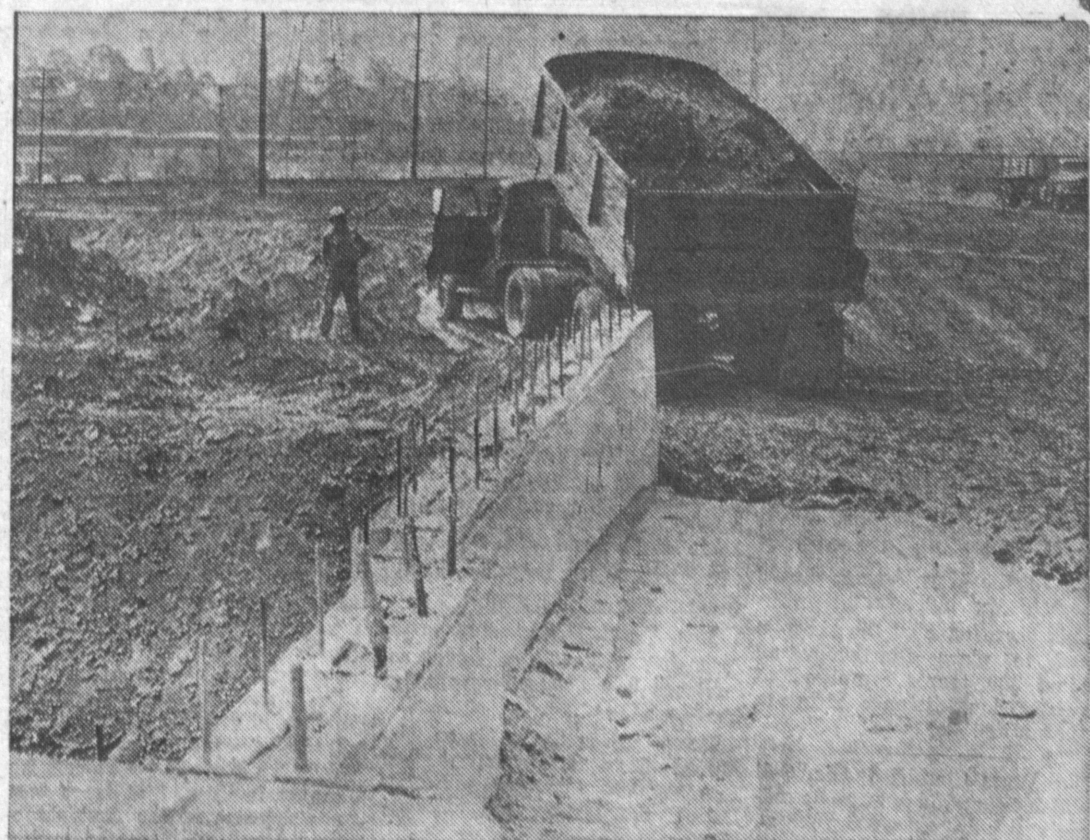

In Alaska Assignment Now in Alaska at Elleson Air Force Base is Army Pvt. Ronald E. Gray, son of Noel Gray, 3310 Danaha St. Gray is a personnel carrier driver in the 47th Transportation Company.

The 17-year-old soldier attended South High School and entered the army last January.

Pvt. Gary W. Sands, 19, son of Glenn W. Sands, 1901 Lomita Blvd, Lomita, just completed the nine-week equipment maintenance course in the engineer school Fort Belvoir, Va.

Sands, a graduate of Narbonne High School, entered the army in April. He is now qualified to perform maintenance on military construction equipment.

GETTING CLOSER — Progress is slowly but steadily apparent on the Harbor Freeway, under construction now in the Torrance area. This photo shows work in progress at the intersection of the freeway with 174th St. Freeway will be opened to 190th St. next summer.

Humor Featured by Toastmasters at Tuesday Meet

Torrance Toastmasters Club will compete for the right to represent the local club in the area speak-off to be held later in September. The public is invited to attend the meeting and help judge.
