Newton PTA Board Plans Thursday Meet

Mrs. William LaMore, 4721

The board met the school's new principal, C. Richard Wallner, at its recent meeting at the home of Mrs. D. C. Robbins, president. Mrs. Warren Post, program chairman, presented an outline of future meetings on the theme "Avenues of Understanding." All meetings will be held the second Thursday of each month at 8 p.m. in the school cafetorium except the Christmas Programs and the May Day Festival, which will be day time affairs.

No Clues Yet to Locker Thieves

Police were still without definite clues as to the identity of sneak thieves who used a pen knife to prior open the bolts on 17 lockers at the boys' gym at South High last Friday during the football game between the Spartans and Artesia High chool, making away with $59 in cash taken from the clothing of the members of the visiting team. Supervisor Kenneth Hahn this week announced the appointment Use Classified. Call FA 8-2345. of Dr. Verling Kersey to the Los Angeles County Committee on

Dr. Kersey is president of the Los Angeles College of Optometry. A former member of the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum Commission, Dr. Kersey is also president of the Los Angeles City Board of Recreation and Parks

"I am sure that Dr. Kersey will be a most valuable member of the Committee because of his leadership ability, his interest in the problems of the aged, and his dedication to serving the people of Los Angeles County," Supervisor Hahn stated in making the appointment.

Dr. Kersey replaces Dr. Irl Stalcup, prominent Inglewood optometrist and civic leader, whose resignation because of the press of his professional duties was accepted with regrets by the Board of Supervisors.

Occidental Club Women to Meet Friday

Arrangements for transportation to the Occidental College Women's Club's initial meeting of the season, Friday at 1:30 p. m., are now being made by Mmes. James McMillen of Torrance and E. M. Broen of Palos Verdes Estates. Members in the South Bay or Peninsula areas interested in attending are urged to contact them.

The program, to be held in Alumni Chapel of Johnson Hall on the campus, will feature a panel of faculty and staff members under the direction of Dr. Arthur G. Coons, president of the college, who will discuss various phases of academic and social life at Occidental.

Mothers of students new to Occidental College were honored at a get-acquainted "coffee" Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Broen with Mrs. McMillen acting as co-hostess. Introduced to members of the area were Mmes. Kelly McBean of Portuguese Bend, Hugh R. Percy of Torrance, Jose G. Falcon of Gardena and Ray Thompson of Harbor City.

Special guests representing the Women's Club were Mmes. Foster K. Sampson, president; Arthur E. Bender, general area chairman, and Kenneth R. Deets, press chairman. Activities of the club and the Christmas tea-bazaar which will benefit the scholarship fund were of Lomita.

Newton PTA board will meet next Thursday at the home of Greenmeadows Ave.

The following chairmen were ratified: Mmes. H. M. Christo-
