Louis Armstrong to Appear at Harbor College This Evening

Jazz musician Louis Armstrong, his all-star quintet, and featured vocalist Velma Middleton, will present a two-hour concert in the Harbor College men's gymnasium tonight at 8 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Tickets are selling for $1.50 and may be purchased now at the college finance office or at the door tonight. A capacity crowd of 1600 is expected to be present.

Armstrong's quintet includes Billy Kyle, piano, Danny Barcelona, drums, Peter Hucko, clarinet, Trummy Young, trombone, and Mort Herbert, bass. They will present a varied program of dixieland jazz, and popular num-

Cultural Events Scheduled at Harbor College

Harbor College is presenting a series of cultural programs of interest to students and the public. The series will feature musical artists, speakers, travel films and slides, and foreign motion pictures that have become international classics.

Comfortable, individual seating has been arranged for this year's presentations in the new, air-conditioned gymnasium at the south end of the college campus. Parking is available.

The programs will be presented at 8 p.m.

Features of the series are:

Oct. 27—"Surf Safari," travelogue and water-sports film with musical background by John Severson, who will provide narrative commentary on spectacular scenes of adventurous surf-board riders in California and Hawaii.

Nov. 25—"Rashomon," Japanese motion picture classic and winner of film festival awards.

Jan. 14—"Jets, Missiles and Man-Made Moon," the Ultrasonic Age," all-color, full-length, motion picture lecture by world traveler John M. Goddard, who will present heretofore secret information about America's super-sonic age.

Feb. 27—"Three American Voices," dramatic interpretation by actor Vincent Price, of the Creative works of Walt Whitman, James Whistler and Tennessee Williams.

March 15—"Little World of Don Camarillo," film adaptation of the best-selling book by Giovanni Guareschi, starring French comic Fernandel.

April 25—"Yugoslavia," lecture by popular Harbor College instructor and San Pedro resident Nicholas Zorotovich, who will show color slides.

May 19—"The Di Tullio Trio," Southern California concert group composed of Joseph Di Tullio, cellist, Louise Di Tullio, flutist, and Yoshiko Niya, pianist, will present the first musical program of the Harbor College Forum Series.
