Torrance Lioness Club Welcomes New Members

Four new members were welcomed into Torrance Lioness Club at the Oct. 7 meeting held in the home of Mrs. William R. Zappas, 24232 Falena Ave. Mrs. Newell Larson presided. Joining the group were Meses. James Becker, Howard Percy, Cecil Powell and Ernest Harris.

The October social meeting will be a progressive dinner the 24th, honoring husbands of club members. The cocktail hour will be held in the home of president Larson. Mrs. Mott Farrell, Mrs. Kenneth Olson and Mrs. John Ritchie will be hostesses in the Farrell home for the shrimp cocktail course. Salad will be served at the Paul Burnam home with Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt assisting. The entree will be served in the Frank Pagac home by Meses. Ray Wyatt, Sam Van Wagner, and Rollin Smith. Desert and entertainment will be at the A. B. McTee home with Mrs. Abe Robinson and Milt Isbell on the committee.

White C ne: Lioness club members gave assistance to their Lion Club husbands in the selling of White Canes (Lion's major philanthropy project) Oct. 9 - 10.

Women Voters Set UN Day

United Nations Day will be celebrated Oct. 24 by the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates when they meet for their annual membership tea in the Art Gallery of the Palos Verdes Library, 2400 Via Campesina. Mrs. Lee Bower, hospitality chairman, announces decorations will carry out the day's theme. The program will start at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Richard Blakeley, president, speaking on "The League of Women Voters and Its Role in the Community." A panel discussion will follow. Meses. William Kingsley, Joseph Anuso, Martin Pritzkat and Ralph Wuicker will discuss "The United Nations and its Accomplishments." All new and prospective members are invited to encourage friends to join the group. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Nicholas Shiskoff at FR 7-2717.

Rummage Sale Will Benefit Woman's Club

Torrance Woman's Club, district 18 CFWC, will hold their first rummage sale of the club year Oct. 23 for the benefit of their ways and means committee. The club house at 1422 Encracia Ave., will open at 9 a.m. Adult and children's clothing will be available as well as pots and pans, bric-a-brac, costume jewelry, linens, and shoes. Mrs. Andrew Acampora, ways and means chairman, will be assisted by her committee. Members are asked to bring articles for the sale to the club house.

Harbor 'Y' to Open Thrift Shop

A veritable "Treasure Isle" waited shoppers when the Harbor Area YWCA opened its Thrift Shop at 359 W. Seventh St. in San Pedro Oct. 15, according to Mrs. Carl Taylor, ways and means chairman for the Association. "This is the YWCA's newest 'baby' and we know it will grow," she continued. The shop will be open two days a week, Thursdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Fridays from 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Parking space at the rear of the building will facilitate the pick-up of larger articles.

Donations of items of all kinds, clothes, furniture, toys and household wares will be most welcome. Mrs. Taylor reported. However, Mrs. Taylor explained, the association is putting the emphasis on good used items and therefore will not be competing with rummage sales.
