Hahn Asks More Beach Camp Sites

Development of inexpensive overnight camping facilities along beaches in Los Angeles County was urged this week by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, who described the lack of beach camping areas as tragic and wasteful.

"There are miles of beach frontages in Los Angeles County that easily could be converted into camping areas and trailer parks, so residents could more fully enjoy the beaches," Hahn declared.

At his urging the Supervisors requested the state Park Com-

CARE Asks Funds for Mexico Relief

Mary Elmendorf, CARE Mission Chief in Mexico, appealed to California donors today to assist the storm victims left homeless and helpless in Mexico.

With more than a thousand dead and more without shelter, the CARE representative in Mexico asked cooperation of Edward J. Flynn, Los Angeles, western director.

Contributions may be sent to CARE, 215 West 5th Street Los Angeles 13.

300 Magnavox Research Workers Tour Torrance

More than 300 Magnavox Research Laboratory employees were given a tour of Torrance Sunday by the firm's personnel department in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce and the Torrance-Lomita Board of Directors.

The caravan of chartered buses toured Hollywood-Riviera, Palos Verdes Estates, local housing tracts, schools, shopping centers, Downtown Torrance, hospitals, and churches.

Mayor Albert Isen welcomed the group during a box lunch at Torrance Municipal Park. Other guests included Dick Fitzgerald, manager and James Harmon, assistant manager, Torrance Chamber of Commerce; and Forest G. Beyrer, executive secretary, Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors.

Don McDowell, personnel director of Magnavox and his assistant, Hal Clifford, were in charge of the outing.

Hawthorne and Carson Signals Slated Dec. 1
