

QUEEN — Candy Watson, a statuesque brunette from Hollywood, was chosen queen of the 37th International Auto Show, which opens tomorrow at Pan Pacific Auditorium. Candy will reign during the 10-day exhibition featuring more than 400 new automobiles from the U. S. and seven foreign countries. The beauty, a student at Los Angeles City College, wears a crown of exotic Hawaiian flowers in keeping with this year's theme, "Motoring Paradise 1960."

Bowling News

Bowl-O-Drome's Wednesday night mixed loop completed the sixth week of their winter meet with Chandler's Sand & Gravel quintet holding onto a five game lead in the "A" Division. Bauer's Paperies and the Outlaws share second followed three down by Rigby's, Kott and Smolar, Rossman Lumber and X-Elllo Shade Co. bunched in the third slot. X-Elllo member, T. Nakawatase latched onto the lead for men's individual season series honors with his potent 565&69-634 set as C. Taylor, Balls-of-Fire ten pin addict whipped up the female high, connecting her three for a whopping 542&102-644 tally. Men's solo lime-light claimed by G. Edwards rolling for the Frenchy's Cafe mob. Scattered the maples for a terrific 267&2-269 single while Rancher's Corner representative, C. Montgomery cut loose with the gals topper, a sizzling 221&20-241. Wednesday nights Harbor Lions headed by the North Long Beach No. 1 keggers, with the Wilmington No. 1, Torrance No. 2 and North Torrance No. 1 vying for the second spot only one out of first. League leading Long Beach hurlers, B. Orett and G. Partsch racked up the loops individual highs. Orett lashing out with a blistering 651&48-699 three game effort while Partsch single with a powerful 234&14-248.

Douglas Mixed Fives hitting Bowl-O-Drome lanes on the Thursday night schedule topped by the Tigers with the Squares, Pythons, Fivelets and the Rebels riding in second, a slim one game out of first. Characters kegler, C. Anderson racked up a whopping 584&66-650 tally to top the mens early season series efforts as B. Darragh going the route with the league leading Tigers, whipped up the female topper, a sizzling 552&93-615.
