DR. A. F. KLINE

Dr. A. F. Kline, Optometrist, Moves Office

Dr. A. F. Kline, Torrance optometrist and civic worker, this week moved his offices to 1408 Cravens Ave.

Dr. Kline, long widely known in Torrance, just departed 1268 Sartori, where he had been situated seven years. He has installed a new optical laboratory, where he compounds his own lenses. His facilities are the latest, with modern equipment for prescriptions and fitting of contact lenses.

Dr. Kline is a charter member of the Civitan Club and has been chairman of that organization's cause of shoes for needy children.

He has been Harbor Area chairman of the annual Scout-O-Rama and an active member director of the Chamber of Commerce and Junior Chamber. He was chairman of the Voice of Democracy program, a national speech contest sponsored by the Jaycees.

He was graduated from the Los Angeles College of Optometry and later was active in the visual - screening program for county schools.

He has done extensive industrial and school vision work. Dr. Kline has taken postgraduate work in contact lenses at the Los Angeles college. He is a member of the National Optometric Association.

Glenn Robinson Joins Firemen

Glenn L. Robinson of 5410 Arvada St. has received appointment to the Los Angeles Fire Department.

He was graduated from an eight-week training course at the fire department's drill tower in North Hollywood.

He studied methods as used over the entire city, which include fire control in high-value municipal areas, heavy-equipment operations, mountain fire-fighting, waterfront fire protection, and methods of arson detection and fire prevention.
