Dentist Establishes Lawndale Office

Dr. Philip Freeman, dentist, has just opened his new credit dental offices at 4537 Redondo Beach Blvd., Lawndale, directly opposite the South Bay Center, for the practice of general dentistry and dental surgery.

The new offices serve the entire South Bay area, and offer a complete family credit dental service, featuring the new ultra-speed air rotor equipment. The telephone number is, Frontier 3-2451, and the offices are open daily, Saturday and evenings. No appointments necessary.

Dr. Freeman is a graduate of Temple University School of Dentistry, and a member of various dental societies including Omicron Kappa Upsilon National Honorary Dental Society. He has been actively engaged in the practice of dentistry for 20 years, the past 12 in the Los Angeles area. Before opening his present office opposite the South Bay Center, he practiced in Torrance.

Dr. Freeman comes from a family of dentists, his father and brother also being in the profession. A Korean War veteran, Dr. Freeman attained the rank of Major, U.S. Army Dental Corps. Dr. and Mrs. Freeman have two children, Barbara, age 16, and Judy, age 9.

Civic Association to Seat Swanson

Burton W. Chace, county supervisor, will be installing officers for the Carson Civic Betterment Association, when Earl E. Swanson begins his second term as president.

The meeting will be held at the Carson Branch Library, 22102 S. Main St., Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited.

Taking office with Swanson will be John McDonald, vice president; Kay Tarling, recording secretary; J. R. Gately, corresponding secretary; Donnell Ottolina, treasurer and James Heckathorn, sergeant-at-arms.

Elected to serve with the officers on the executive board were H. W. Rutherford, Joe Weston, J. R. Gately, Maurice Tarling, Arthur Reynolds, Joe M. Trevino, and Paul Schneider. Mrs. Joe Weston was elected for a three-year term on the board of trustees.

Chace will make a report to the people of the Carson area on the work of the Board of Supervisors, and will discuss taxes, streets and parks in the Carson district. A discussion period will follow.
