NEW CHIEF—W. R. "Ray" Noel beams as he acknowledges election as president of Torrance Kiwanis. He will serve through 1960.

El Camino Supt. Heads Torrance Kiwanis in 1960

W. R. "Ray" Noel will be installed as 1960 President of the Torrance Kiwanis Club on Saturday, Jan. 16th at the Palos Verdes Golf Club, it was learned today.

Noel, a graduate himself of El Camino College, is Superintendent of the Building and Grounds for the 91 acre school.

A member of the Baptist church, Masons, and other community affairs, Noel has eight years perfect attendance in Kiwanis clubs.

Ray and his wife Becky have three children, and reside in North Torrance.

Other Torrance business leaders to be installed as officers in the Kiwanis Club will be: Messrs. T. G. Wilkes, 1st vice president; H. G. Stevens, 2nd vice president; C. D. Virden, secretary; and C. J. Meadway, treasurer.

Water Rate Hike for Palos Verdes

The California Public Utilities Commission today set Feb. 3, 4 and 5 for initial hearings in the Palos Verdes Estates City Hall on the application of the Palos Verdes Water Company for an increase in rates of approximately $338,000 a year. Commissioner C. Lyn Fox, assisted by Examiner Stewart C. Warner, will preside at 10:30 a.m.

During the three-day session, the company will present evidence in support of its request and the Commission will hear testimony from customers, official bodies and other interested parties.

39 Percent Increase

Following the initial hearings, a recess of 45 days or longer will be taken to permit Commission staff accountants and engineers to complete their independent investigation of the company's finances and operations.
