

TOMMY L. SIMPKIN

Completes AF Course

Airman Tommy L. Simpkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Simpkin of 2442 Winlock Dr., Torrance, has completed his initial course of Air Force basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., according to Technical Sergeant Duane K. Hetler, Air Force recruiter for this area.

Airman Simpkin attended South Torrance High School prior to entering the service in November, 1959. He has been selected to attend a specialized course in the supply career field at Amarillo AFB, Tex.

The USAF is always looking for qualified young men and those that can successfully pass the airman's qualification test will be given immediate enlistment. For further information regarding these tests, contact Sgt. Hetler at his office, 1319 1/2 Sartori St., Torrance, or call him at FAirfax 8-1404.

Eastern Star Slates Sunday Breakfast

Tomorrow evening the group will observe district courtesy night at an 8 p.m. meeting. The stations will be filled by visiting officers.

Military Service

Guard Gives Ribbon

A Redondo Beach citizen-soldier is one of 22 members of the National Guard's 40th Armored Division to receive the Commendation Ribbon, it was learned today.

Lt. Col. William L. Geissert, 439 Calle de Castellano in Redondo Beach, has been awarded the Commendation Ribbon with pendant for distinguished service in the California National Guard.

Geissert, with the other 21 men, will receive his award at official ceremonies, according to Maj. Gen. Homer O. Eaton Jr., 40th Division commander in Los Angeles.

Hussey Promoted

HEILBRONN, Germany — James B. Hussey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Hussey, 1878 Lincoln Ave., Torrance, recently was promoted to specialist four in Germany, where he is a member of the 4th Armored Division.

Specialist Hussey, a clerk in Company A of the division's 54th Infantry in Heilbronn, entered the Army in November 1958, completed basic training at Fort Hood, Tex., and arrived overseas last April.

The 23-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of Torrance High School and attended El Camino College. He was employed by the Herbell Drilling Co. in Long Beach, before entering the Army.

TWICE WINNERS

Fort MacArthur, Calif., The Fort MacArthur Soldier of the Month citation and $15 cash award, presented to the outstanding soldier in the Los Angeles area, was awarded to Specialist Four Hugh W. Bailey of Headquarters Battery, 108th Artillery Group (Air Defense), last month. This is the second time that Specialist Bailey has won the honor.

Selected by his battery commander, Captain Jack D. Smawley, the soldier entered the competition representing over 2,000 men from commands with headquarters at Fort MacArthur. To determine the winner, a board of one officer and four enlisted men interviewed the selected candidates, checking their knowledge of current events, military conduct and procedures and job skills.

After interviewing all candidates, Specialist Bailey, battery clerk and qualified Nike missileman, was selected as the Soldier of the Month.

Student Entries in Art Contest

Torrance High School's entries in the 14th annual Scholastic Art Awards program.

Southern California, which is by far the largest regional contributor to the national awards program, involves junior and senior high school students from 702 public, private, and parochial schools.

Fifteen hundred selections from among the entries will be chosen by a professional art "jury" for exhibition, and 300 will be awarded the traditional Gold Keys of excellence and will be sent on to the national program in New York.

Bullock's Inc., co-sponsor of the program here with the Scholastic magazines, will receive all entries prepare them for judging, and then stage major exhibitions in its stores starting Feb. 27.

Art categories include painting and drawing (all media), ceramics, jewelry design, fashion design, photography, block printing, and other crafts.
