Judaism Course Scheduled at Temple Menorah

A course entitled "Information on Judaism" will be offered on Thursday nights at 8 p.m. beginning Feb. 4, according to Rabbi Henry E. Front of Temple Menorah, 112 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach.

Classes will be held in the Temple and are designed to inform non-Jewish members of the South Bay area in the basic precepts and practices of Judaism.

The course will cover the Jewish understanding of Holy Scriptures, basic Jewish theology, customs and ceremonies of the home and Temple, and Jewish history.

A one hour lecture will be followed by a question and answer session.

Fire Hazards Told

Battalion Chief Gordon Northington and Engineer Charles Reinstra of the city's fire department gave a demonstration on how to combat fire hazards in the home at the January meeting of the Waveria PTA.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Al Moore, chairman of safety and civil defense.

Following the address Mrs. Al Klemman, honorary life membership chairman, requested that nominations be submitted for this

Spacemen Place First in Student Career Poll

Have you discussed your seven-year-old's future profession with him lately? Chances are he is planning to bring-home-the-bacon by steering a sputnik through the ionosphere.

In a survey of first and second graders at Hamilton Elementary School, space pilots cancelled all competition as the job with the most appeal for the young gentlemen in the class. Such perennial favorites as fireman, policeman, and cowboys were not even dignified with mention.

On the distaff side, the majority, perhaps intuitively recognizing the casualty possibilities in making a three-point landing on Venus, placed nursing at the top of its career list. Votes were also cast for movie star, ballet dancer, teacher, and secretary.

The poll was conducted as part of a program designed to help children understand their role in the community.

year's candidate. She announced that the winner would be chosen in February.

Victor Kilburn, principal, and Mrs. Robert Spangler, Michael Malla, Klemman, and Don Moore were elected to the nominating committee.

BRIDGE CLASS IN SESSION AT CITY'S YW

Lessons in beginning and intermediate bridge are now in session at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St.

Bob Christie, master point holder and tournament player, is teaching both courses.

Persons interested in enrolling in either class are being requested to call FA 8-5914.

Stephen White Student Body Seats Officers

At a special assembly last week in Stephen M. White Junior High School auditorium, the student body seated its officers for the spring semester.

Those installed were John Madison, president; Irene Yan, ahilara, girls' vice president; Wayne Smith, boys' vice president; Delma Jordan, lower division vice president; and Carol Kajikawa, secretary.

New members of the Ladies and Squires, the school's honor associations, were also seated. Joining the Ladies were Barbara Rosenbaum, Sherry Geesey, Christina Catron, Shirley Burtie, Georgene Herbert, Marlene Dean, Linda Riley and Lily Sotuyo.

The Squires welcomed Bruce Bettrell, Eugene Congro, Billy Grindele, John Pete Haber, Joe Coulter, Tony Ferrara, Roger Renfro, Tom Harrison, and Kenney Wilder.

Iola Watkins, coordinator of student activities, sponsors the Ladies. John Fox, boys' vice principal, is the Squires' sponsor.
