

City's Catholic Daughters of America Celebrate the Feast of St. Valentine

The Court of St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, saluted the feast of St. Valentine and revealed secret pals at a party in Nativity parish hall Monday evening.

Mrs. Don Cowden was party chairman. Assisting her were Mmes. Ray Montenegro, Cecilio Mata, and Forest G. Meyers. Mrs. George Klimek was 1959 secret pal chairman. New secret pal chairman is Mrs. Gordon Hicks.

At a brief business session Mrs. Charles Butterfield was elected organist. It was announced that the new schedule for club meetings would be the first and third Thursdays of the month.

The group also discussed its annual card party slated for Feb. 22, the CDA poetry contest at Nativity School, and voted a donation to the March of Dimes. The card party will be held at 8 p.m. in the parish hall. Mmes. F. W. Rick and Michael McMahon are chairmen. Their committee comprises Mmes. William Hartley, Thomas Cassidy, Frank Corsentine, Lyle Freckleton, Lloyd Landerville, William Healy, Ralph Sullivan, Joseph Cemo, Raymond Rogers, Edward Heatherman, Ralph Bobbitt, Miles O'Dowd, and George L. Probert.

Also Marie Linenger, Catherine Fahey, Lena Osweiler and Rosa and Katherine Orman.

City's Juniors Prepare to Greet Konya Visitors

Cooperating with the Konya Sister City Committee, members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club are planning an active part in the forthcoming Konya Days celebration Feb. 26 and 27 in honor of representatives from Konya, Turkey.

Primary on the club's list of activities will be a cross-section tour of the homes of Torrance, Feb. 27, at 2 p.m. The tour will be followed by a tea at the home of Mrs. Douglas Baldwin, 1613 Elm Ave., honoring the wife of Mayor Bilkin of Turkey. Pouring at the tea will be Mmes. J. G. Louvier and Kenneth Boulter, past president and president of the Juniors. Mrs. Don Carlson is chairman of the tea.

Hostesses whose homes will be visited by the Turkish functionaries are Mmes. Robert L. Kerber, W. H. Gardner and C. T. Rippey Jr. An effort has been made by Mrs. Baldwin, chairman of the homes tour, to obtain a variety in homes selected to give visitors a true picture of our manner of living.

Along with other programs of the celebration, the tea will be televised in color over 26 overseas outlets, according to Mrs. Joseph J. Boylon, international affairs chairman of the Juniors and member of the Sister City Committee.

In addition, the comments of guests will be taped and broadcast over 74 stations by Radio Free Europe.

Mrs. Boylon also is planning to represent the Juniors in the welcoming group at the airport on Thursday evening, with John Barton, chairman of the Sister City Committee, Mayor Isen and the Torrance City Council.

PTA Birthday Observed

"Our Founders Started the Circle" will be the Yoked PTA program honoring the 63rd anniversary of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Doyle Henderson is in charge of the presentation. Highlight of the evening will be the awarding of the honorary life membership.

At a brief business session following the program the slate of 1960-61 officers will be read by the nominating committee.

Fourth grade mothers will be hostesses.

MRS. WAYNE E. CURTIS
... at home in Long Beach

Miss Noma J. Wetzel Bride of Wayne Curtis

Miss Noma Jean Wetzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. MacArthur, 24805 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, became the bride of Wayne E. Curtis in double-ring rites last Tuesday at Calvary Presbyterian Church, Long Beach.

Mr. Curtis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Curtis, 1952 Myrtle Ave., Long Beach.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of taffeta brocade featuring a lace bolero. A pearl tiara secured her finger veil and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white carnations and stephanotis.

The Rev. Wilber M. Franklyn, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Harry Chase, chaplain on campus of Long Beach State and City Colleges, officiated at the exchange of vows.

Lorna Parker was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sara Dyer and Lynn Wetzel, sister of the bride. All wore coco-brown taffeta with matching cummerbunds and carried yellow carnations.

Lloyd Curtis served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Paul Petersen, Jim Conrady, Lawrence Cressy, Ronald Wyborne, and Fred Link.

Mrs. Curtis was graduated from Narbonne High School with the class of '54. A senior at Long Beach State College, she will receive a degree in education in June.

Her husband attended Polytechnic High School and also holds a B.A. in education from Long Beach State. He is employed by Electrical Motors.

MISS BARBARA CLEMENS

Miss Clemens Betrothed to Charles Howard

Formal announcement of the betrothal of Miss Barbara Ann Clemens to Charles William Howard has been made by the mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. John Clemens, 1511 W. 257 St., Harbor City.

Mr. Howard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wayne Howard, 325 E. 237 St., Wilmington.

The future bride received her ring last Friday at a reception celebrating her graduation from Narbonne High School, in the home of her sister, Mrs. James Titus, 1666 W. 257 St., Harbor City.

The benedict-elect attended Banning High School and is now employed at Polly Sales in Long Beach.

The couple plan to be married Sept. 9, three days prior to the silver wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents.
