CAMPAIGNERS—City Attorney Stanley Remelmeier, chairman, talks over YMCA fund drive with Stephen MacArthur of Gra-Y, Jim

Griffin of Lancers Junior Hi-Y, and Susan Wilcox, an Indian maiden. Saturday breakfast at Del Amo Center launched campaign.

100 YMCA Campaigners Start '60 Fund Drive at Breakfast

One hundred Torrance YMCA campaigners gathered for breakfast Saturday at the Broadway Del Amo to help launch the 1960 finance campaign.

Seeking a goal of $82,000, the campaigners were entertained and informed about the Y program through a series of presentations by boys, girls, men, and women active in Y clubs, tribes, and camps.

The campaigners saw mothers and daughters of the Sequoia tribe do an Indian dance, boys of the Beavers Gra-Y club run a football play, and representatives of the Lancers Junior Hi-Y club describe their service projects to help others.

Alpha Renz, Tri-Hi-Y adviser, reported on her recent participation in the high-school YMCA Model Legislature last week in the Capitol. Then Paul Slyh, teen-age director, described the extensive camping program available for all members of the family.

Stanley Remelmeier, city attorney, and chairman of the campaign, emphasized the need of the Y for financial support in order to continue and enlarge its services to youth. Remelmeier also introduced the key campaign leaders: Chapman Bone, Donald Hitchcock, John Wallace, William Poser, the Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman, Dr. Robert Barrett, George Kurtz, and James Post.

Campaigners will be reporting their progress each Tuesday and Thursday until March 17 when a victory celebration will be held.
