SOPRANO JOAN TRONA
To Portray Margarita in Gounod's "Faust"

Civic Symphony Will Present 'Faust' March 20 at Redondo

The Civic Symphony, Elyse Aehle conducting, will present Gounod's "Faust" at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 20 in Redondo High School auditorium.

A cast of more than 100 will include four opera stars, a film actor as narrator, the North American Chorus, and the Civic Symphony of Torrance.

"Faust" has been a favorite subject for painters and, even in the comics the devil is usually pictured as a handsome, well-dressed man in a red costume just as Mephisto is depicted in "Faust."

"Margarita" will be sung by the young opera star, Joan Trona, who recently appeared at the Shrine Auditorium and at the Opera House in San Francisco.

The part of Faust was won in auditions by Joseph Rehard of Downey, who sang it in a recent production in Los Angeles. A

Funeral Rites Set Today for Former Officer

Rosary for Theodore A. Morris, 46, former police lieutenant here, will be recited from Halverson-Leavell Mortuary tonight at 7.

Mass will be sung tomorrow at 8:30 a.m. at St. Catherine Labourer Church.

Lt. Morris was found dead at his home, 18412 Kingsdale Ave., Sunday morning. An autopsy was ordered, although a physician said death likely was due to a heart attack.

He had been with the Torrance Police Department nine years and was in charge of the record bureau when he resigned last year.

Torrance is within the 17th United States Congressional District.

More than 50% of the people living in Torrance are under the age of 21.

Softball Tilt on March 19

It'll be boys versus girls in a softball tilt planned for 2 p.m. on March 19 at Torrance's El Retiro Park.

Play Leader Jerry Kill said the boys' team will be handicapped by batting "wrong-handed" in the competition with the staff nine.

Sno-cones will be sold to players and spectators before and after the game.

Assessed valuation of Torrance on July, 1959 was $194,566,280.

Torrance's tax rate per $100 is $1.29.

Floral Program Set by Sorority

The South Bay chapter of Delta Zeta will hear a program on floral arrangements Thursday at the home of Mrs. James Lindsey, 10943 Penny Ave., Inglewood.

Interested persons are being invited to attend.

Torrance's area is 21.125 square miles or 1382 acres.
