

"Dining With Ron"

By RON BURPO

Here are three ways to combat that old problem of getting the cake out of the pan:

1. For a cake that will slide out easily, coat the bottom and sides generously with $\frac{1}{4}$ cup shortening mixed well with $\frac{1}{4}$ cup flour.

2. The easiest method is to cover the center of the bottom with a circle of brown paper, peeling it back over the cake to avoid breaking off pieces.

3. Grandma's old-fashioned method still works good... grease the bottom and sides generously with butter.

Regardless of method, there is a best time to remove the cake. Cool layer cakes 10 minutes. If they stand longer, loosen the sides, warm the bottom on top of the range to loosen the paper and soften the crust so the cake will drop out easily.

Now that you know how to get a cake out of the pan... let me ask you one more thing. Do you know how to make a Sundae? At WOODY'S SMORGASBURGER we feature DO-IT-YOURSELF SUNDAES... served AFTER 8 P.M. every
