Noted Anthropologist Will Discuss 'New Patterns in Family Life' Here

Dr. Margaret Mead, noted anthropologist, will discuss "New Patterns in Family Life" in a lecture at the Hollywood High School auditorium Saturday at 8 p.m.

She is being sponsored here by the Los Angeles Area Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers.

Dr. Mead's studies of native people on the islands of the Pacific and her recent studies of social and educational patterns have resulted in numerous published works.

Her first book, "Coming of Age in Samoa" went into five printings within two years and twice was reissued because of its general appeal. She is, perhaps, best known by the public as the author of "Male and Female." Associate curator of ethnology, American Museum of National History, in New York, Dr. Mead's appearance in Los Angeles follows a trip to London where she participated in the World Federation for Mental Health.

The school auditorium has a seating capacity of 2000; tickets may be purchased at the door. The charge, to cover expenses only, will be $1.50 and for students $1. There are no reserved seats, persons wishing to attend are being advised to come early.

Set Card Party Tuesday

The Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors will sponsor a card party Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. at the Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Prizes will be awarded for high scores. Ruth Garland is refreshments chairman.
