Claudia Fern Walgren Bride of N. H. Broom

Claudia Fern Walgren became the bride of Norman H. Broom in a Latter-day Saints ceremony last Friday at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach. Officiating at the double-ring service was Bishop Sterling A. Johnson of the Mojave Stake.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Walgren, 520 Via Monte D'Oro, Rolling Hills. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman P. Broom, 18712 Cordary Ave.

The new Mrs. Broom was escorted to the flower-banked chancel by her father. Her wedding ensemble was of chintilly lace over tulle with an applied Peter Pan neckline.

An applied tiara detailed in pearls and sequins held her fingertip veil and she carried a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Lewis Goodwin was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Thrutchley and Miss Dean Walgren and Gerald Winchel. All were attired in blue chiffon over Nile taffeta with matching headpieces. They carried shades-of-blue bouquets.

The Misses Lisa and Mary Beth Flight were in white trimmed with blue for their roles as flower girls.

Mrs. Walgren, mother of the bride, wore a royal blue sheath with matching coat and blue accessories. The bride's mother chose pale pink lace with white accessories.

Robert Earl Walgren served as best man. Dean Walgren, Gerald Winchel, and Eldon Baleme ushered.

The couple welcomed more than 150 guests to a reception in the bride's home following the ceremony. Mrs. John Walgren presided at the guest book.

Mrs. Broom, an employee of Douglas Aircraft, was graduated from Inglewood High School with the class of '56.

Her husband attended secondary schools in Massachusetts and was graduated from Los Angeles City College. He also is employed at Douglas.

After a wedding trip to San Francisco, the couple will live in Welteria.

PTA News

Narcotics Discussed at Narbonne Meeting

"Narcotics is the number one internal problem in the United States," Sergeant H. C. King, narcotics division, Los Angeles Police Department, told Narbonne PTA members at a recent meeting.

He said that drug addiction is responsible for 50 to 60% of all crimes, and added that any city with a seaport, or an international airport has a narcotics problem.

Sergeant King was introduced by Mrs. Stephen Lovas, program chairman.

Mrs. Joseph B. Butler was elected president of Narbonne PTA for 1960-61. Mrs. Butler was the first president of Flemington PTA, 1957-59 and also is a past president of an elementary PTA in Los Angeles.

At present she holds the office of historian and is secretary of Gateway Council.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Butler were Mrs. Raymond Denay, first vice president; Homer Price, second vice president; Vier Lowry, recording secretary; Douglas Cowdry, corresponding secretary; R. B. Huntley, treasurer; Raymond Stalmack, auditor; and C. L. Wilson, historian.

Chester Dean, faculty chairman of the schools open house on April 19, invited parents to attend between 7 and 9:30 p.m.

Stephen White Elects Mrs. Anania President

Stephen M. White PTA elected Mrs. Francis Anania for the 1960-61 term as president. Others taking office were Mrs. J. T. Evans Jr., first vice president; W. L. Harvey, second vice president; John Fox Jr., third vice president; Walter Stewart, recording secretary; Fred Trujillo, corresponding secretary; Charles Linn, treasurer; Richard McMahon, auditor and H. T. Runge, historian.

Mrs. Leon Senter arranged the table decorations. Theme for the meeting was "Avenues of Approach."
