Page D-2

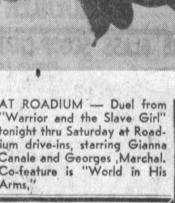

We all love our food, and we East have the exclusive rights to all know that food is essential good cuisines. Just why this to our life and continued good should be, I'm at a loss to exhealth, but how many of us eat plain. Just look at what we here purely for the sake of health in this country have contributed alone? Very few. Some of us eat in the way of good food to the purely for the pleasure it gives diets of the Old World. There's us; some, to become strong; the luscious red, and always welsome, because we are worried or come, tomato. And how about upset; and still others of us be- corn, found grown by the Indians cause we find ourselves bored when the Pilgrim fathers landor with nothing else to do. For ed? Where, indeed, would the these last two reasons, primarily, Irish be without the American many who should watch their potato?

weight for their health's sake Speaking of food have you find themselves putting on those had BAR - B - QUED CHICKEN literally fatal excess pounds. Ex-amine your motives for eating. at WOODY'S SMORGASBUR-You'll be sure to find them inter- GER are serving a truly DELI-CIOUS CHICKEN DINNER for esting. We in America have a great only 99c. ONE HALF CHICKEN inferiority complex about our broiled right before your eyes on food for some inadequate reason real CHARCOAL for that ever or other. We seem to feel that so wonderful flavor. Includes Europe and the Near and Far soup or salad, baked potato with

Thursday, March 31, 190

Kick-Off Event Set

TORRANCE PRESS