YMCA Lists Caravans Camps, Hikes for Easter Vacation

The Torrance YMCA today issued a final call to all youngsters for Easter vacation activities.

New among the many local YMCA programs this year is a four-day boat caravan to Catalina. Boys 12 and older will camp out on the beach at Emerald Bay. The group will travel to the island on the fishing boat "Off-shore" starting Monday.

Girls eight years old and up are being invited to spend a fun day with the Y Saturday, April 16. The girls will visit Griffith Park, Forest Lawn and one of the new smell-o-vision movies in Hollywood.

Boys 14 and older will go on their own steam with a rugged weekend backpack hike. They will travel from Idyllwild cross-country over the San Jacinto mountains to Palm Springs. April 9 and 10 is the dates for this excursion.

Dads with boys 9 to 12 are being invited to take their sons on a northern coast expedition. Fathers and sons will visit Santa Barbara, Solvang, San Marcus

Pass, and then camp on the beach in a state park. This weekend is set for this trip.

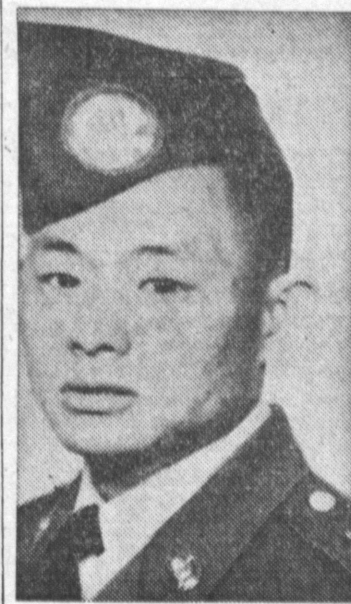

All Torrance YMCA activities are open to any youngster in the age ranges.

Red Cross Campaign in Torrance Reaches 58% Mark in $9000 Goal

The Red Cross campaign in Torrance reached 58% of its goal of $9000 April 1, according to Dean Sears, local chairman.

Residential leads the soliciting division with 82% of $4750 goal; business division follows with 59% of its goal of $1750; and commerce-and-industry division has 14% of a goal of $2500.

Sears said the southern region goal of $44,500 now stands at 82% of quota, and leads all other branches in the Los Angeles chapter in the overall campaign goal of $3,316,468. The chapter goal has reached 65% of quota.

Sears praised the volunteer workers in the residential division who had exceeded their division quotas. Mrs. James E. M. Neil, chairman of Walteria division, leads with 270% of quota of $216; Mrs. C. L. Jackson, chairman of western section of North Torrance, has 125% of quota of $140; Mrs. Kenny Uyeda, chairman of eastern section of North Torrance, has 121% of quota of $254; and Helen Lackey, chairman of central Torrance, has 113% of quota of $947.
