Torrance, South High Students in Navy for a Day

Torrance High and South High are being represented aboard the helicopter carrier Thetis Bay today as more than 400 reporters for school newspapers spend "A Day in the Navy."

Bill Cosby and John Whitacre of Torrance High and Rolf Hendricks and Kit Taylor of South High were chosen to represent their school in an all-day cruise off Long Beach. It is sponsored by Public Relations Co. 11-2, Naval Reserve.

The boys will compete in a writing contest about their experiences.

The program began yesterday when the students toured the Long Beach naval station before dinner. They saw a movie and slept in navy barracks.

They are embarking with their journalism teachers or principals and civic and business leaders at 6 a.m. They will return at 4 p.m.

During their cruise the guests will witness loading of combat-ready marines into helicopters that will take them ashore in a simulated invasion, refueling from a tanker, simulated attacks by jet planes and a submarine, firing at surface targets, and all daily routines aboard ship.

The Thetis Bay is one of three carriers specially converted to transport marines for invasion. Ten helicopters will be used to show this new technique.

GI Resale Offered

BOOKED—Cal Tjader, one of the most famous of modern jazzmen, will appear at El Camino with equally famed Hi-Los.

Cal Tjader, Top Jazz Artist, to Play El Camino

Jazz artist Cal Tjader will unite with the Hi-Los, vocal combo, in the Spring Jazz Concert in the Women's Gym of El Camino College April 23.

Tickets are on sale at the student store and at music stores. Proceeds will go to the Welfare Week charity fund. Dick Watts, committee chairman, announced.

Tjader began his jazz career as a drummer with the Dave Brubeck Trio and later joined the George Shearing Quintet. With Shearing, he doubled on drums and vibes and later began experimenting with bongos, conga drums, and timbales.

Tjader also plays piano, writes arrangements, and has composed numerous tunes his quintet features.

Using a complex harmonic style which features the unusual vocal range of Clark Burroughs, the Hi-Los have paved their way to popularity.

Members of the quartet include Burroughs, Gene Puerling, composer of the group's vocal arrangements, Bob Morse, and Don Shelton.

Since their origination in 1953, the Hi-Los have worked concerts with Judy Garland and Johnny Mathis, appeared on television with Rosemary Clooney, Steve Allen, Red Skelton, and many others, and were presented by David Rose at the Pasadena Pop Concert.

Talk on Workers' Insurance Set by Employers

A workshop conference on unemployment insurance will be held at the Hacienda Hotel, San Pedro, April 20, under sponsorship of the California State Chamber and the San Pedro, Torrance, and Wilmington Chambers of Commerce.

Arranged for employers in this area, the workshop is to demonstrate how unemployment insurance costs can be reduced through better understanding of basic procedures.

Discussions will cover eligibility requirements for claimants, how the high and low tax schedules function, and what steps employers must take to protect their reserve accounts against unnecessary charges.
