Narbonne to Present Famed Shorty Rogers in Jazz Night

On Friday, April 22, the Jazz Club of Narbonne High School will give its second annual Jazz Concert in the school auditorium at 24300 S. Western Ave.

Shorty Rogers and his band will appear with Pat Healy, vocalist.

Shorty was born in 1924 in Great Harrington, Mass.

He began playing trumpet while a freshman at the High School of Music and Art in New York.

He spent six months in Will Bradley's Band in 1942 and was with Red Norvo until he went into the army in 1943. Upon his discharge, he joined the Herman band and was with him two years before his trip to California to study.

Shorty entered the motion-picture industry featured with a band as well as arranging and composing jazz sequences for "The Glass Wall."

This was followed by his band doing the sound track and Shorty the arrangements for the Marlon Brando film "The Wild One."

Now solidly established in the motion-picture scoring field, Shorty's credits including the "Mr. Magoo" cartoon series, "Private Hell 36," "Bob Mathias Story," "Walkin' My Baby Back Home," "Dial Red O," "Cobweb," and "Kismet."

He has just completed scoring the Afro-Cuban music for MGM's "Tarzan and the Apeman."

Shorty has also entered the field of television, playing a role in one of the "Peter Gun" shows.

Today he is one of the busiest musician-arrangers on the coast. He has been a leading influence in building the West Coast into a prestige jazz center. His work ranges from rock and roll to far-out jazz.

On April 22 Shorty will concentrate on modern jazz, for which he is most famous. He and his band, which includes Lou Levy, piano; Frank Capp, drums; Buddy Clarke, bass; and Harold Land, tenor, will play a full 80 minutes.

During the intermission albums will be given away; everyone who attends is eligible to win. This great performance will run from 8:15 to 10.

The donation is $1.50, $1.75 if purchased at the door. The concert last year with Chico Hamilton was such a success that many who attended demanded Narbonne sponsor another this year.
