

Today Final Day to Register for Primary in June

Today is the final day to register for voting in the June primary. Residents who must re-register if they wish to vote are those who have changed addresses, changed names, or switched party affiliation.

Registration may be done at the city clerk's office or with any of the following deputies: Mrs. M. L. Livingston, 5313 Highgrove St.; Mrs. C. S. Peters, 425 Via Anita; W. A. Mason, 204 Via la Circula; or Mrs. N. K. Racita, 4605 Paseo de las Tortugas.

Cement is the ingredient that gives exterior stucco finishes their lasting qualities. A cement-based stucco finish hardens with age and resists all weather conditions.

BENEFICIARY — Vincent Davey, Torrance Police Officers' Association treasurer, gives check for $50 to Mrs. Henry Schmal, chairman of Torrance chapter of American Field Service to help bring exchange students here.

Ryan Personnel End Course in Political Action

The first group of employees of Ryan Electronics here have completed an action course in practical politics at luncheon in The Palms.

The final meeting, climaxing eight gatherings covering various areas of politics, featured comments by Paul Jacobs of the Democratic Central Committee of Los Angeles County and William Roberts from the district Republican headquarters, Los Angeles. Advice was given on how businessmen can participate with their political party.

Ten men completed the course. J. W. Wallace, personnel manager of Ryan, said another group will start the program next week.

Wins Scholarship

Frank Small, North High School math teacher, has been awarded a National Science Foundation summer scholarship to attend Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.

The award covers an eight-week summer course designed to aid teachers in modern math concepts.
