

LA TIENDA—Artist's conception of Kasden's La Tienda in Welteria, for which ground was broken this week. The firm is moving next door from where it has been 14 years next to Fish Shanty, Pacific Coast Hwy. Famous furniture is featured.

Police Officers' Association Gives $50 to Help Wrestler in Olympics

The Torrance Police Officers' Association this week joined the drive which will send Torrance's Olympic wrestling hopeful, Stuart Buckalew, to the Olympic finals in Ames, Iowa, April 27 to May 3.

President Gene Erbetta of the police group presented a check for $50 to Buckalew at the office of the Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring the drive for Buckalew's trip.

President J. H. Paget of the chamber said, "Torrance has every reason to be proud of its Police Officer's Association as they not only are rated as one of the nation's finest police forces, but also are always the first organization to come to the support of projects for our youth."

Buckalew will compete in the Olympic free-style trials on April 27, 28, and 29 and will remain in Ames to attempt also to qualify in Greco-Roman wrestling.

All of Torrance is hopeful that Buckalew will qualify for the Olympic Games in Rome this summer, as Torrance's first Olympic representative since Louis Zamperini qualified for the 1936 Olympiad in Berlin.

ASSURANCE—Stuart Buckalew, champion wrestler, gets check from Gene Erbetta, president of Torrance Police Association.
