Miss Dixie Bergen Bride of Martin Weir

Miss Dixie Lyn Bergen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Von M. Bergen, 2803 Gramercy St., became the bride of Martin Charles Weir, Saturday in a Temple ceremony in the Temple of the Latter-day Saints, West Los Angeles.

The benediction is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Weir, 1682 W. 254th St., Harbor City.

The bride was attired in white satin with an Italian lace overlay and scoop neckline detailed in seed pearls. White lace gloves and a fingertip veil securing her seed-pearl crown completed the wedding ensemble. She carried a cresset of white rosebuds.

Following the service the couple were honored at a chapel program in the Mormon recreation hall in Gardena.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Vince Billings as matron of honor and the Misses Donna Isdell and Sharon Watkins, bridesmaids. All were clad in shades of pink and carried pink rosebuds.

Ron Farrish served as best man. Ushers were Douglas Bergen, Gordon Valgardsen, Fred Hansen Jr., and Frank Burton.

The mother of the bride wore powder-blue lace over taffeta. Mrs. Weir was in a blue lace sheath. Both wore white accessories and corsages of pink rosebuds.

Virginia Chase was soloist; Elizabeth Halling was at the organ.

In keeping with Mormon custom, Ted Wheat gave the bride's biography. The bridegroom was chronicled by Carl Durham, his uncle. Bishop Hal Bradshaw spoke on the differences between civil and temple ceremonies.

The newlyweds welcomed guests at a reception in the hall. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bergen of Ogden, grandparents of the bride. The new Mrs. Weir was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of '57. She attended Brigham Young University in Provo and is a graduate of Flavio's Beauty School. She is employed by Belle Arts Beauty Shop.

Her husband was graduated from Narbonne High School and Harbor Junior College. He recently returned from two years of mission work for the Mormon church in Mexico and is now employed by the Harbor City Post Office.

After a wedding trip to Palm Springs, the couple will be at home at 2224 Gramercy St.

Home Decorating Program Slated by Las Damas

Las Damas de Lasuen will sponsor a program on interior decorating today, 7:30 p.m. in the Fernin Lasuen High School. Hazel Rabbitt will be guest speaker.

The business agenda will include the appointment of a nominating committee, a program report on the school dedication slated for May 22; and consideration of plans for the June supper dance.

Mrs. Leo Francis Foley Jr., is dance chairman. Her committee comprises Mmes. Robert Rados, supper; Eugene Dunn, invitations; Henry Smith, reservations; Anthony Dimaria, awards; Anthony Ostich, decorations; Joseph Sulentor, patrons; Kenneth Ward Smith, press; Leo Thomas, installations; and Jackson Pearson and Conrad Guzman, consultants.

Members Mark YWCA Week at Church Services

Members of the Torrance YWCA will mark the beginning of National YWCA Week Sunday by attending the churches of their choice as part of the nationwide celebration.

"The YWCA seeks to help members advance their physical, social, intellectual, moral, and spiritual interests," Elsa Morris, executive director, said.

"With the influences of church, home, and school, members can make a contribution toward achieving those principles which lead to justice and freedom for all," she said.

"In the YWCA," Mrs. Morris added, "the program is designed to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians.

"In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God.

"We know that Christian action goes beyond the walls of any church and into the community. We feel that the Y can be a significant channel for Christian service to augment the work of the church, if those of Christian faith will support it," Mrs. Morris stated.
