

CHECKING SCORES—Plans are made for concert series to push Charles P. Sohner (left) for Assembly. Mrs. Milford Wyman and Stella Herman, arranger of first concert, join in discussion with Kirk McDonald, producer. First event is set for Rolling Hills.

Concert Series for Sohner to Start April 30

A series of four concerts, "New Sounds for Sohner," sponsored for election of Charles P. Sohner in the 46th District Assembly seat, will start this month.

The first concert will be "Stella Herman presents New Voices of 1960" April 30 in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Saffo, Rolling Hills.

A second concert June 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay C. Miller, Westchester, will feature classical Japanese music and dance.

Hosting the third recital on September 24 will be Mr. and Mrs. George Bell of Palos Verdes Estates.

Titled "American: Ballads in Prose and Song," it will be read and sung by Rosemary DeCamp, screen and television actress, and Dr. Frank Sullivan of Loyola University.

One act of a Menotti opera will be coupled with a contemporary one-act play for the fourth program, "An Evening of Modern Theater," scheduled for October in the home of Judge and Mrs. John Shidler, 317 Camino de las Colinas.

Each of the concerts also will feature an exhibition of paintings by a local artist.

Accompanying the Stella Herman recital will be a display of contemporary art by Mildred Walker, Hermosa Beach, art instructor at El Camino College. Season tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Donald Diamond, FR 8-3832.

Theodore Bigley in War Games at Eastern Base

Army Specialist Four Theodore F. Bigley, 21, 24212 Eshelman Ave., Lomita is participating with the 101st Airborne Division in Exercise Quick Strike at Fort Campbell and Camp Breckinridge, Ky.

Quick Strike was designed to exercise the division's readiness as one of the major units of the Strategic Army Corps.

Bigley, a senior medical aidman with the 326th Medical Company, entered the army in 1957.

He attended Narbonne High School and was employed by Knoles Construction Co. before entering the army.

DeArmitt

In addition to his city and union activities, DeArmitt is institutional representative for Scout and Cub Troops 656, is a Cubmaster, and is co-manager of the Major League Indians, a Little League team.

This year he has been co-chairman of the Fire Fighters' house-to-house campaign that raised more than $4000 for the YMCA. Two years ago he led a similar drive by firemen for muscular dystrophy.

At El Camino College during 1947-48 he was All Metropolitan halfback.

In his 5½ years on the fire department, DeArmitt said he never has received a written reprimand and his efficiency reports have been very good.

Torrance Facility Will Help Celebrate U.S. YWCA Week

With the theme "Help Yourself to Happiness," the Harbor area YWCA will join with 1600 YWCA associations across the United States to celebrate annual YWCA Week, April 24-30.

In the Harbor Area more than 8000 girls and women each year help themselves to this happiness by using parts of the diversified program offered by the Community Chest-supported YWCA.

For teen-agers there are charm classes, crafts, camping, and sports among other activities that help members grow mentally and physically.

Fitness classes, arts and crafts, and other programs of interest are offered to women.

The Harbor area YWCA is headquartered at 437 W. 9th St., San Pedro, and maintains branch operations at 2320 Carson Ave., Torrance, and 1242 N. Avalon Blvd., Wilmington. Other facilities used include the Hollywood Riviera Methodist Church, 375 Palos Verdes Blvd., where the South Bay YW Vives meet every Wednesday morning, and the Recreation Park Clubhouse in Gardena where local teen-age groups meet.

The YWCA operates a residence hall at 423 W. 9th St., San Pedro, with 11 rooms and a community kitchen.

The summer camp at Tahquitz Meadows, owned with other YWCA associations, is open to girls entering the seventh grade this fall through high school.

Councilmen Told What to Expect

first, the councilmen were told.

"The freeway program is the biggest thing of its kind ever attempted," said Telford, "and much time and effort has gone into the conclusions. It takes time to agree. We have a seven-year backlog of routes adopted—this is required for freedom in planning."

He said the highway department is spending $60,000,000 a year on rights-of-way for freeways.

"When we have finished your links, we want you to have some place to go," he said, pointing again to the folly of building little sections of the program here and there.

On the subject of Los Angeles' terror, the downtown interchange, the group was told the routes are being spread out by the Golden State and Santa Monica freeways rather than double-decking the Santa Ana, Harbor, Hollywood, and Pasadena routes.

In a 24-hour period, 200,000 cars go over the Hollywood-Harbor lanes.

Uncertainty of the federal highway program was blamed for much stalling in the work in California. For a time, Bradford said, it appeared the entire project would be badly curtailed. Then the money was restored.

Now, he said California is short $70,000,000 from the United States this year and expects to be $50,000,000 light next year.

Womack said he was delighted to meet a group interested in getting freeways. Usually, he said, the state has to fight to get them through.
